Red Army Engulfs Nazi Defences on 300-Mile Stretch

Smash Within Artillery Range of Smolensk and Further Flank Kiev

LONDON, Sept. 23 (AP).—The Red Army smashed to within artillery range of Smolensk today, further flanked Kiev, and toppled the Ukraine citadel of Poltava to engulf German defences along a 300-mile stretch just short of the middle Dnieper River.

A Soviet communique announced the capture of Buzanovo, nine miles northeast of the German central stronghold of Smolensk, and Pochinok, 19 miles to the southeast, as Soviet armies plunging westward, overran 863 more towns and villages along the huge front.

The Red Army also captured Unecha, rail junction midway between Bryansk and Gomel, and the Moscow radio said Soviet troops already had crossed into White Russia adjoining Poland.

A Berlin broadcast acknowledged the peril to Smolensk, Kiev, Cherkassi, and other Eastern front bastions; admitted the loss of Poltava, said Soviet troops had broken into Roslavl southeast of Smolensk, and also stated "a few small" Russian detachments had reached the Dnieper River.

The Russians now have plunged so far westward that Eastern Prussia, the Baltic States, Rumania and Axis targets in Poland and Hungary are within easy Soviet bomber range for the coming three-sided Allied effort to smash the entire German "roof."

Ministers at today's meeting heard bitter complaints of so-called "nagging" regulations arising from administration of wartime restrictions, and were warned that these were costing the party dearly in lost supporters.

None questioned the necessity of wartime restrictions which were supported almost unanimously in the House of Commons by all parties.

Liberals Seem Against Vote Within a Year

Members in Caucus At Ottawa Today

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—A general desire to wait at least a year before holding a Dominion election was apparent among Liberal parliamentarians gathering here today for tomorrow's full party caucus called by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, and the National Liberal Federation reorganization meeting opening next Monday.

It was also apparent that the House members will have a great deal to report about complaints among their electors over the administration of wartime restrictions and regulations.

They will be given complete freedom to speak their minds on these and any party matters at the caucus, which opens at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the commons railway committee room and is expected to carry on through part of Saturday.

But from those who attended preliminary caucuses here today, members of Parliament from Ontario, Quebec and Saskatchewan all meeting separately, came expressions of willingness to abide by whatever decision Mr. King may wish to make regarding the time when they must risk their seats in an election.

New Control on Storaged Meat

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—The Canadian Meat Board by order effective September 27 prohibited today the storage of certain designated qualities of meat by any packer or other person without first receiving authority from the board.

The order is designed to "supplement the arrangements of the Government in purchasing surplus beef suitable for domestic reserves and for export to the United Kingdom if required at the established floor prices."

Meat board officials said no beef yet has been sent to the United Kingdom, although it is hoped such supplies will be available if cattle marketings are good in coming months.

Under the terms of the order, the free movement of beef supplies to where they are needed most will be made possible.

Tram Men In South On Strike

Roosevelt Fails to Stop 2,600 Workers

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23 (AP).—The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen's grievance committee tonight voted a strike of 2,600 workers of the Pacific Electric Interurban Railway for 2 a.m. P.D.T. Friday as scheduled, despite a last-minute move by President Roosevelt in hope of averting it.

The action, backing up the union's original plans for the walkout, came several hours after the White House announced that President Roosevelt had ordered a special railway mediation panel established to consider wage adjustments for the interurban company's employees.

The President ordered the board to report on or before October 15 and that Economic Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson act on the report within ten days thereafter.

Immediately after receiving that information, the union's grievance committee went into conference and decided to go through with the strike threat that grew out of the workers' demands for a thirteen-cent hourly wage increase.

"After talking with our committee chairman, William P. Nutter, in Washington, and after further consideration by the grievance committee, the committee has decided that, in view of the fact the Presidential order establishes only another board, we do not feel that we can go back to the men and tell them they will have to wait another thirty-two days for a decision, and so the strike will go on as scheduled," declared Committee Vice-Chairman Don H. Sheets following the meeting.

Elinor Glyn Is Dead at Age 78

LONDON, Sept. 23 (CP).—Elinor Glyn, well-known novelist, died early today at the age of 78, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Glyn, who would have been 79 on October 17, entered a nursing home three weeks ago.

The writer established her literary reputation with the novel, "Three Weeks," but she was perhaps equally well known as the woman who taught Rudolph Valentino, famous star of the silent movies, how to make screen love.

"Three Weeks," which has been described as the foundation of the modern sex novel, was so daring it shocked grandmothers and caused a storm of protest, but it turned out to be one of the greatest popular successes of the day. She was once offered $40,000 for the manuscript of the book.

Elinor Glyn led a life that was almost as glamorous as any described in her novels. She was born on the Island of Jersey and by the time she was 27 years old was a widely-traveled young woman of fashion, with dazzling red hair and green eyes. She once recalled how four young Englishmen quarrelled over her and then jumped into a lake in full evening dress. She married Clayton Glyn, who died in 1915.

Pope Plans to Be a Prisoner Within Vatican

LONDON, Sept. 24 (Friday) (CP).—A Reuter's News Agency dispatch from Zurich said today it was reliably reported from Rome that Pope Pius XII intends to become a voluntary prisoner in the Vatican by re-establishing the conditions prevailing before the Lateran Treaty.

The Germans have established a guard at the entrance to the Vatican.

From 1870, when church states were incorporated in the kingdom of Italy, until 1929, the Popes remained in self-constituted imprisonment in the Vatican. Then Pope Pius XI signed the Lateran Treaty with the Government of Italy, headed by Benito Mussolini, which recognized the Pope as sovereign of the City of the Vatican.

One Fatality Costs $45,000

VANCOUVER, Sept. 23 (CP).—Earl F. Campbell, of San Francisco, Western division director of the National Safety Council, told the Vancouver Traffic and Safety Council in an address today that one fatal accident in a town the size of Vancouver costs approximately $45,000—double the amount needed to carry on an over-all safety programme for a year.

"The associated costs of a fatality, including damages to property, hospitalization, payment of insurance, loss to employer, and loss of revenue and income to the victim's family, constitutes this large expenditure.

Railwaymen Ask Pay Boost

Application Made for 140,000 in Canada

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Formal application has been made to the National War Labor Board for wage increases for some 140,000 Canadian railway workers, it was learned tonight. No date has been set for dealing with the case—the largest which has yet come before the board.

The application, made by the Standard Railway Organizations, seeks to have wage rates for railwaymen employed in the "running" trades lifted to a parity with rates paid in the Eastern United States and basic rates for other employees increased 23 cents an hour.

The union's action in making a formal application followed notice served on 14 railway companies last July 31. At that time the unions expressed a desire to deal with the matter collectively on a national basis with a committee representing the railways and a committee representing the labor organizations.

Stays in Germany

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP).—The seat of the "new Republican Fascist Government" set up under the Premiership of Benito Mussolini is to be established temporarily in Southern Germany because of war hazards in Italian territory, the Berlin radio said tonight.

A new Cabinet was announced earlier in Berlin transmissions. Mussolini is to be his own Foreign Minister, it was said. Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, one of the Italian army's highest ranking officers, was identified as Minister of Defence.

Australians Push Enemy To South in New Guinea

Japanese Resisting Drive by Sea-Borne Army On Finschhafen Airdrome—Town Under Fire

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 24 (Friday) (AP).—Australians who landed from the sea six miles north of Finschhafen, New Guinea, Wednesday have pushed resisting Japanese southward, reached the airdrome only two miles north of the base and have placed the coastal town under artillery fire.

Headquarters announced these developments today in a communique which also disclosed that a heavy air engagement ensued the day of the landing in which 40 Japanese were downed and five others probably were destroyed.

Three Allied planes were lost.

"Enemy resistance is being rapidly reduced and we are pressing toward Finschhafen which is now under artillery fire," the Communique said.

"We have reached the north end of the airfield."

Warships and planes provided cover for Wednesday's landings.

Capture of Finschhafen would put Gen. Douglas MacArthur in a strong position, if he so chose, to strike at crescent-shaped New Britain and its stronghold of Rabaul. New Britain outflanks Bougainville, principal Japanese holding in the Solomons.

The Japanese air force began attempts to intercept the ships off Finschhafen in mid-morning Wednesday. The landings began at dawn. Two of the first attacking planes were shot down from high altitude.

The big fight occurred at noon as 20 to 30 Japanese bombers with fighter cover attacked landing craft. Anti-aircraft guns on American warships put up a heavy fire. Allied fighters engaged in a 25-minute battle.

Headquarters said not a ship or passenger was damaged or injured. (The Tokio radio said Thursday night that two Allied cruisers were set on fire and other ships damaged.)

Finschhafen is threatened ultimately by a pincers, there being other Australians who landed be-

Must Have Permit To Go to Another City Seeking Work

VANCOUVER, Sept. 23 (CP).—William McKinistry, British Columbia regional representative of National Selective Service, said today Prairie people have been coming to the Pacific Coast seeking employment without a permit from Selective Service, and said in future these regulations will be rigidly enforced.

"No one can move from one province to another or from one city to another without a permit from their nearest Selective Service office," he said. "It is our intention this year to rigidly enforce this regulation.

"Anyone coming from the Prairies without such permits will find themselves in the position of having to secure the necessary transfers from their home office before they will be given any permits to go to work in British Columbia."

Nazis Get Ready to Abandon Naples as Fifth Army Nears; Battle in Corsica About Over

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1943, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The British Eighth Army in the Salerno area has occupied the strategically important town of Potenza while the Fifth Army is regrouping and moving forward.

There is now, says The Times' Algiers correspondent, a continuous Allied front from points west of Amalfi to the Appennines watershed. The Germans, pivoting on hills to the east and north of Salerno, have swung their left flank northward, fighting rearguard actions with small battle groups.

Potenza is a meeting place of many roads and railways and is a communication centre for all Southern Italy.

Inland from Taranto there is much hide and seek fighting in the hills. Fifty Germans were killed in one patrol engagement. The Times' correspondent with the Eighth Army thinks the Germans northward from Salerno are trying to form defence lines from Salerno Bay eastward across the whole peninsula. They evidently do not intend to relinquish Naples without a struggle.

Describing the invasion of Corsica, The Times' correspondent tells how it was carefully prepared with the Corsicans beforehand. Arms and supplies were hidden in the hills and when the French arrived the Corsicans had already formed their own local governments in many parts of the island.

The Nazis' only port now left is Bastia, on the northeast. From here the Germans are trying to reach Leghorn. Royal Air Force Wellingtons are bombing them effectively.

Another setback for the Nazis is the invasion of the Italian Provinces of Istria and Venezia at the head of the Adriatic Sea by Slovene insurgents from Yugoslavia. A few days ago these guerrilla fighters seized the port of Split and disrupted part of the railway from Zagreb to Fiume.

The Germans in reprisal have bombed Split heavily and moved in troops, but to do this they have had to weaken themselves elsewhere. Some Italian Socialists are fighting with the Slovenes.

The Red Army is progressing victoriously towards Smolensk and to the River Dnieper in the south. It has taken the Black Sea port of Anapa by storm. Once again victory guns have been sounding in Moscow.

There is now little doubt, says The Times' Stockholm correspondent, that the Germans are pulling

Coal Delivery Men Deferred

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Labor Minister Mitchell announced early tonight that an amendment has been made to National Selective Service mobilization regulations which will grant postponement from military training to coal delivery men in cities of 50,000 population or more.

The announcement said the general regulation covering postponement of these men will be effective to next February 1 and until that date no coal delivery man will be required to report for military training, nor will he be accepted on application for voluntary enlistment in the armed forces, unless a Selective Service officer gives written permission.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 23 (AP).—German torch and dynamite crews demolished the Naples waterfront, scuttled thirty ships to block the harbor and wrecked industrial and rail facilities in the great Italian metropolis in apparent preparation for evacuation as Allied armies lunged tonight within sight and sound of the wholesale destruction.

Nazi Bases In Europe Pounded

Intensified Night and Day Assaults Made

LONDON, Sept. 24 (Friday) (CP).—A great concentration of British bombers made a pulverizing assault against Hitler's west wall defences between Dunkerque and Calais early today while another strong force roared out for a new and deeper assault within the Continent.

Great explosions shook the English coast 20 miles away. Scores of enemy searchlights and bursting shells stabbed the skies while the bombers poured tons of explosives on the fortifications guarding the French invasion coast.

The roar of heavy bombers as they went out in a long procession over Dover Straits continued more than an hour. Within a few minutes after the flights started, the Berlin, Koenigsberg, Leipzig, Paris

Graydon to Tour Canada

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Gordon Graydon, president of the Progressive Conservative Association of Canada and member of Parliament for Peel, will make a nation-wide tour during October and November to discuss "important" matters with Progressive Conservative supporters across the Dominion.

Mr. Graydon, it was announced today, will leave Ottawa on the Western leg of his journey on October 9, arriving in Winnipeg on October 11.

His itinerary in the four Western provinces includes short stops at Winnipeg, Prince Albert, Kenora, Fort William and Port Arthur. He will return to Ottawa on November 1.

It was understood that Mr. Graydon's cross-country visit would not be a speaking tour.

"Right now there are many important matters which I desire as president to discuss with prominent supporters of John Bracken in the various provinces," he said. "The swing is with us. There are important decisions to be made. The speeches can come afterward. There is more urgent and important work to be done by a Dominion president at the moment, and I intend to put first things first."

He said plans would be discussed and laid for a "more comprehensive and aggressive advancement" of the party's activities throughout the Dominion.

ON B.B.C. STAFF

TORONTO, Sept. 23 (CP).—S. J. de Lotbiniere has been appointed Canadian representative of the British Broadcasting Corporation and will leave London shortly to take up his duties at the C.B.C. national programme office here, it was announced tonight by C.B.C. offices in Toronto. His family is well known in Quebec.

The battle for Corsica was in its final stage. French troops and a small group of American rangers—the equivalent of the commandos—closed in on Bastia, northeast port of the island, and Allied navies and air forces clamped on a tight blockade, cutting off German escape. Gen. Henri Giraud, French commander-in-chief, predicted that all Germans on the island would be ousted or killed in "from ten to 15 days."

Allied forces advanced ten to 15 miles in Central and Southern Italy, straightening their lines.

The German left flank was pried loose. The Anglo-American Fifth and the British Eighth Armies were advancing and forcing Marshal Albert Kesselring to draw grudgingly back on the interior approaches to flaming Naples.

Ginosa, Avigliano and Acerno fell. Ginosa is 25 miles northwest of Taranto and 14 miles inland from the Gulf of Taranto. Avigliano is 50 miles east of Salerno and about eight miles northwest of Potenza. Acerno is a village 18 miles east and slightly north of Salerno.

The B.B.C. said Auletta and Contursi had been captured. Auletta is 36 miles southeast of Salerno on the road to Potenza. Contursi is 26 miles southeast of Salerno, and there the Germans admitted "a dent made by the enemy in our positions."

Slovene Army Fights Its Way Into Trieste

Citizens Aid Battle Against the Germans

LONDON, Sept. 23 (CP).—Yugoslav Army's Slovene troops tonight were reported to have fought their way into the Italian Adriatic port of Trieste. The report said that Trieste citizens were aiding the Slovene troops in fighting the German garrison.

Yugoslavs here with information from partisan units battling in Northwestern Yugoslavia said other Slovene soldiers occupied Idria, thirty miles northeast of Trieste and fifty miles north of Fiume. These troops also were said to be fighting along a fifty-mile front from Bistrica to Ljubljana.

The Algiers radio said the Yugoslavs were shelling Fiume from Susak, just across the frontier, and reported street fighting in Trieste. The broadcast was repeated by the B.B.C. The repetition being recorded by C.B.S.

The Budapest radio, quoting a Zagreb dispatch, declared the Germans had captured Susak. This broadcast was recorded by The Associated Press.

Printers Still Out on Strike

WINNIPEG, Sept. 23 (CP).—While the two-day deadlock between the management and composing room employees of The Winnipeg Free Press continued tonight, some progress toward settlement of the sit-down strike was reported following a meeting of union and company representatives.

Harry M. Fraser, of Toronto, International Typographical Union [illegible] is a statement that "some progress" was made and further meetings with the employees are anticipated.

The men, who ceased work Wednesday, are seeking recognition of Local 191, I.T.U., as their bargaining agency. Mr. Fraser stated that the I.T.U. has been assured "full and complete co-operation from the members of the International Pressmen and Stereotypers Unions in the plant." He declined to discuss details of co-operation sought from the other two unions.

No settlement was issued by The Free Press following the meeting.

For the second day The Free Press was published, printed in part from stereotype plates of The Winnipeg Tribune.

New Programme for Relief In Freed Countries Announced

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (CP).—State Secretary Cordell Hull made public tonight fresh proposals in connection with future establishment of a United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration to function in countries redeemed from Axis domination.

The new proposals were distributed to forty-two United Nations and those associated with them, including the French Committee of National Liberation, with the suggestion that if the terms are acceptable they send representatives to Washington in November to sign a binding agreement.

An earlier proposal to hold a conference of the interested countries has been drafted.

The new draft agreement represents a victory for the smaller United Nations which protested against the original proposals made last June that would have given a great concentration of power to the big four—China, Russia, Britain and the United States.

Under the new draft, the big four continue to form the central committee, the administrative nucleus of the organization, but its powers would be cut considerably from the original proposals and it would be responsible to the veto power of the council representing all participating countries.

As far as Canada is concerned, the most noteworthy aspect of the new draft is the retention of the committee on supplies, representing the countries in a position to donate the food and materials required for relief and rehabilitation. It often has been reported here that Canada would get the chairmanship of this committee, one of the most im-

May Get More Liquor in November, Says Kennedy

Possibility of an increased liquor ration for British Columbia in November was forecast on Thursday by W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the Liquor Control Board.

In view of the fact that the board's fiscal year starts on November 1, Mr. Kennedy expressed the opinion that the allowance of liquor, beer and wine might be increased at that time.

Just what the new allowance might be, Mr. Kennedy was not prepared to say.

He gave no hope, however, that the existing ration of 13 ounces of liquor, or two dozen pints of beer, or certain quantities of wine would be changed during the month of October.

"It is too early yet to say definitely" he said, "but if the September consumption is anything like the past few months, the allowance will remain as it is."

It is expected by Mr. Kennedy that despite his continued hammerings at officials in the east for an increased allowance for British Columbia which has experienced a huge influx of people from other provinces, the quota for this province for the past year will remain as it was for this year, namely 70 per cent of the total consumed during the year ended October 31, 1942.

He said, however, that in view of the fact that liquor rationing was put into effect in this province for only about eight months of this year, and that in the four months prior to that time a great part of the year's ration had been sold, there was every hope that when spread evenly over the 12-month period starting in November, it should be more satisfactory.

Bombing Europe

and Luxembourg radios were silenced.

A heavy, concentrated raid by R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. bombers on the German industrial and railway centre of Hanover was followed by twin daylight raids Thursday by American four-engined planes on the Nazi submarine base at Nantes. It was the first double-header raid by the United States Eighth Air Force in fourteen months of operations in Europe.

A joint British and American communique said the American heavy bombers in their morning attack on docks and shipyards at Nantes destroyed nine enemy fighters while four more fell to the guns of escorting American fighters. Two more Nazi fighters were shot down in a raid on the Kerlin-Bastard airfield in France.

A communique telling of late afternoon attacks said airfields near Rennes, Lille, Abbeville and the Netherlands town of Scheide were attacked.

Fighters, escorting the bombers, made extensive sweeps over Northern France, destroying nine enemy fighters which made a total of twenty-four for the day. Two of the raiding bombers and four fighters were reported missing, bringing the totals to three bombers and six fighters lost during the day. The pilots of two of the fighters were safe.

Of the second daylight raid on Nantes, the communique said simply that the Fortresses "made a second heavy attack on the docks and shipyards."

The Germans threw up a considerable swarm of fighters in an effort to stave off Thursday's assaults by Flying Fortresses on the Nantes area, but only one heavy bomber was lost in the morning raid.

APPLY PRESSURE IN EARNEST

The Fortress fleet often has hit several different targets in a day, but this was the first time it had hammered the same target twice in a day. It indicated the Allies had begun applying the pressure in earnest in their campaign against important Nazi facilities.

Hanover — Metropolis of about 500,000 persons west of Berlin on the key Berlin-Cologne four-track, east-west railway; site of Germany's largest rubber works and big locomotive and tank plants.

Emden—North Sea port near the Netherlands frontier.

Oldenburg — Important military and communications centre west of Bremen.

Nantes—French Atlantic port and key base for German submarine and naval operations and coastwise shipping, attacked twice.

Rouen—Rail and industrial city between Le Havre and Paris, attacked by R.A.F. medium bombers.

Vannes-Meucon—Coastal air base, 70 miles northwest of Nantes, hit by American heavy bombers.

Kerlin-Bastard—Air base farther northwest near Brest, hit by American heavy bombers.

Beauvais-Tille—French air base received its sixth pasting this month.

Evreaux-Fauville — Air base 45 miles northwest of Paris, which was also hit Wednesday.

Brest—Air base hit by R.A.F. Typhoons.

Conches—Air base 60 miles west of Paris hit by United States medium bombers.

Air Bases in Northwest Germany and France—Hit by R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. Mosquito planes on night intruder operations.

Netherlands Coast—Shipping and installations in Wemeldinge Canal hit by R.A.F. Typhoons.

HANOVER PICTURED AS AN INFERNO

WITH THE R.C.A.F. BOMBER GROUP, Somewhere in England, Sept. 23 (CP)—Canadian pilots returning from Wednesday night's pulverising R.A.F. raid on Hanover today pictured the German industrial city as an inferno of smoke and flames.

The Canadian share of the attack was described officially as "the R.C.A.F.'s heaviest blow yet as a group." Several squadrons of R.C.A.F. Lancasters, Halifaxes and Wellingtons participated.

The devastation created in the target area was described by F.O. A. Novick, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., as "one solid mass of flames, covering an area of several square miles."

"I saw one terrific explosion that belched bright orange flames probably as high as 1,000 feet," he added. "The big black billows showed the bombs had lit oil fires and we could see the bright glare of the actual flames for 250 miles."

Other Canadians told of the Nazis copying R.A.F. intruder tactics, reporting that several German intruders followed aircraft home to their bases. A Lancaster in which Flt. Sgt. D. G. Lightfoot, of Burnham, Sask., was rear-gunner, was attacked as it prepared to land.

"He opened up across our stern and we returned the fire," Lightfoot said. "But we didn't wait to see any more. We got out of there and stooged around for ten minutes until the coast was clear."

Among Canadians flying with the R.A.F. on the raid were P.O. H. M. McDonald, of Vancouver, bomb-aimer, and P.O. C. H. Johnson, Strome, Alta., navigator.

New Programme

portant posts in the entire arrangement.

ONE CHANGE IS PROPOSED

One change in relation to the committee on supplies has been proposed. Under the original draft, the supplies committee would have been created by the central committee, the big four. Now it is suggested that it be created by the council, which represents every country involved.

This illustrates how the powers of the central committee have been decreased in the new proposals. The effect has been to clothe the council, on which the smaller countries have a dominant voice, with greatly enlarged powers.

When the first draft was distributed to Governments, two main objections were registered by some of the smaller countries. The first was aimed at the power and authority concentrated in the big four and the second was that Russia would be the one European country, outside of Britain, sitting on the central committee. The latter provision has not been changed in the new draft.

The administration will have a director-general with authority to carry out operations within the limits of financial resources and the policies set by the council. Herbert H. Lehman, former Governor of New York State, now director of the Office of Relief and Rehabilitation of the American Government, likely will get the job, but the decision rests with the members of the council.

An area fifty-five miles north of Durazzo was reported under siege by Montenegrins after they captured the coast town of Ucinj and the Summer resort of Petrovac. The Italian "Taurienence" division with its commanding general was said to have gone over to Yugoslav partisan units now fighting the Germans.

There were some estimates that the war equipment of about four out of twenty Italians divisions in the northern part of the country now had fallen into the hands of the Yugoslavs.

Madrid quoted reports from both Italian and Balkan sources which said that not only Fiume but the whole German grip on the Istrian Peninsula was threatened by well-armed guerrilla bands in communication with partisan forces holding Susak and part of the Adriatic coast.

At Novi a landing party of nearly 100 German sailors was reported wiped out and its launches seized.

The B.B.C. said "at least seven separate engagements are now being fought in the Fiume area." It said Indria was the seat of one of the biggest mercury mines in Europe.

British newspapers have cut their paper consumption to about one-sixth of their prewar rates.

tween it and Lae September 4 to open the operations which resulted in capture of the latter air base.

THOUSANDS OF JAPS KILLED

Headquarters announced that at least 6,300 Japanese were killed in the Lae-Salamaua sector and that final estimates may place the figure much higher.

Lae, an air base; Salamaua, an air and sea base, together with Finschhafen, bound the Huon Gulf.

The heavy air losses of the enemy at Finschhafen strongly indicated the Japanese air force, rendered virtually impotent over New Guinea during the closing stages of the Lae-Salamaua fight, has been reinforced.

Prior to Wednesday's landings north of Finschhafen, a formation of enemy planes was sent to attack ships involved in the operation and nine were downed by intercepting fighters.

The Japanese air force attacked the Allied base on Buna on the Papuan Peninsula of New Guinea, the Nadzab air strip 20 miles up the Markham Valley from Lae, the American airfield at Munda on New Georgia in the Solomons, and other American positions on Vella Lavella.

North of Australia, heavy bombers raiding the Kai Islands, shot down six Japanese planes.

The Japanese airdrome at Cape Gloucester, New Britain, only 85 miles northeast of Finschhafen, was hit Wednesday with 73 tons of bombs in its third heavy raid since Sunday. The four-hour raid destroyed a grounded plane, hit anti-aircraft positions and exploded fuel dumps.

The Allied landing north of Finschhafen, together with the consolidation by air-borne Australian troops of their hold on Kalapit, 60 miles northwest of Lae, finds the Japanese facing two new threats to their already shaky perimeter in the island arc north of Australia.

this Winter. The Ploesti oilfields in Rumania are only 435 air miles from the advancing Russians.

RUSSIAN TROOPS NEARING POLAND

Aside from the thrust at Gomel and the menace to Kiev, Ukraine capital, 145 miles from the old Polish border, Russian troops had overrun Velizh at the edge of the upper White Russian border only 115 miles from Poland.

Between Kiev and Poltava, Russian armies had swung southward toward the Middle Dnieper and were less than 15 miles from Cherkassi, key to the extensive rail network inside the Dnieper bend. A plunge across the Dnieper into Cherkassi would impe ril huge Axis forces on the Eastern side of the river far to the east, and in the Crimea.

Powerful Russian forces were closing in methodically on Kiev and Smolensk. The Germans appeared on the point of quitting their last foothold in the Caucasus and fleeing to temporary sanctuary in the Crimea.

A city of 90,000, Poltava is the centre of a network of railways radiating to Kharkov, Kiev, Kremenchug and Dnepropetrovsk. It is 80 miles southwest of Kharkov.

The Russians are deployed along a crescent position northeast, east, and southeast of Kiev, rich Ukraine capital which had a peacetime population of 2,000,000. The Russians at one point are within 18 miles of Kiev.

Leaving Naples

among the fleeing foe, and bombed objectives in Greece, Rhodes and Crete.

Almost no Nazi aircraft were reported anywhere along the 1,500-mile Mediterranean front, and huge Allied ship convoys moved at will.

Most of the Allied land gains in Italy were north and northwest of Taranto as the reinforced British Eighth Army, which includes units of the Canadian First Division and the British Fifth Corps pushed forward on the heels of Germans retreating northward toward the cluster of major airfields around Foggia.

With the capture of Ginosa, Avigliano and Acerno, the continuous Allied line from Salerno on the Mediterranean to north of Bari on the Adriatic had been pushed forward eight miles northwest of Potenza and ten miles west of Mottala, which is north of Taranto.

Small gains were made north of Salerno in the last mountain barrier to the plains of Naples. There the Germans resisted stubbornly while they destroyed everything of value in the once beautiful city of 925,000. A smoke blanket hung over Naples and approaching Allied troops could hear frequent explosions.

Aerial photographs showed the destruction of the Naples waterfront to be worse than were the German demolitions at Tripoli in North Africa.

THIRTY ITALIAN SHIPS SCUTTLED

"At least 30 Italian ships have been scuttled and sunk and practically every useable berth along the docks has been blocked" by Nazi demolitions, an official announcement said.

"Fires have been burning along the docks for several days, apparently the result of demolitions. Charges have been seen to explode among the docks."

The pictures also showed that the industrial area north of the docks had been wrecked. Railroad yards were demolished.

"The extent to which this is going on indicates the enemy is determined to make the big port—one of the largest and best of peacetime harbors—completely useless to Allied troops when they occupy it," the Allied Air Forces stated.

The systematic campaign of the Northwest African air forces to wipe out enemy communications leading to the Naples area continued without pause. Bridges, roads junctions, highways and moving transport columns were battered at and around Torre Annunziata, Formia, Mignano, Benevento, Grottaminarda, San Martino, Cava, Nocera and Avellino.

American fighters strafed enemy shipping in the Adriatic 60 miles northwest of Bari in the Gulf of Manfredonia. They hit a 2,000-tonner twice and shot up the quays and piles of war materiel. Two Allied planes were lost in all and they found only a single German to shoot down.

But the ministers were frankly told that the people had to be educated as to the necessity and the meaning of such small but aggravating strictures such as those placed on the use of farm trucks and regulations which prevents purchase of a suit with two pairs of pants, but permits a man with the money to buy as many suits as he chooses.

Tomorrow's caucus, and a reorganization meeting of the National Liberal Association which follows it on Monday, closely follow a bad defeat of the Ontario Provincial Liberal Party in a general election, the defeat of four Liberal candidates in widely separated by-elections, and the loss of a number of former Quebec supporters in the House.

These and other circumstances are expected to be laid before the caucus by Mr. King, but what he will suggest should be done about it is anybody's guess.

Undoubtedly, judging from the sentiments expressed by Liberals here today, he will be advised to hold on, that his administration has been successful and justified in every respect, and that a lengthy period of preparation should be allowed for education of the electorate and removal of grievances.

HOW TO HELP MR. GOLD SEAL MAKE GOOD
You can get added wear out of your Congoleum floors with very little effort. Brush and mop them regularly and renew the brightness of their surface with an occasional waxing. Make sure too, that the floor underneath is smooth and free from crevices or knobs. If it's a rug, move it every few months to "spread" the traffic. Yes, a little care will pay big dividends.

RECTAL SORENESS AND PILE TORTURE QUICKLY RELIEVED
If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this condition become chronic. Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once.
For this purpose try a package of Hem-Roid from Modern Pharmacies and Committee Drug Stores or any druggist, and use as directed. This formula which is used internally in a small, easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the itching and soreness and aid in healing the sore tender spots. Hem-Roid is pleasant to use, is highly recommended and it seems the height of folly for any one to risk a painful and serious pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost.
If you try Hem-Roid and are not entirely pleased with the results your druggist will gladly return your money. (Adv.)

DECREASES UNEMPLOYMENT

DUBLIN, Eire (CP).—Large-scale emigration to Britain since the war started has partly solved Eire's unemployment problem. During 1942 nearly 52,000 travel permits were issued, compared to 35,000 in 1941 and 26,000 in 1940.

LONDON (CP).—You've got to be commando-trained to get a drink at the Dewdrop, Britain's front-line public house. The pub is ten yards away from a Sten gun range and fifty yards away is a hand-grenade practice ground.

Keeping Bread Price Down Is Ottawa Worry

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Rising wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and the necessity of maintaining bread prices at their present level have posed a problem for the Federal Government which now is receiving consideration, it was learned today.

No. 1 northern wheat closed at $1.22 a bushel, cash price, at Winnipeg yesterday, 32 cents a bushel higher than the minimum price of 90 cents a bushel being paid by the Canadian Wheat Board on grain delivered by western farmers. Prices broke in early trading today following reports the Government planned changes in trading regulations. Losses were from 2½ to 3⅝ cents a bushel.

Trade Minister MacKinnon, whose department includes the Canadian Wheat Board, the major authority on wheat affairs, said he had no comment to make on reports action on the grain exchange was planned. He said no Wheat Board meeting was being held today.

To maintain bread prices, the Government more than a year ago established a ceiling price of 77⅝ cents a bushel for wheat to be used by the baking industry for home-consumed flour. Under the system then instituted, the Wheat Board each month announced the average price of wheat prevailing during the four-week period. A drawback covering the amount between 77⅝ cents and the average price then was provided through the Prices Stability Corporation.

DRAWBACK EXCEEDS 40 CENTS

When the wheat price held at less than $1 a bushel, the demands on the treasury were not onerous. But of recent months wheat prices have been riding steadily, and now the drawback runs to more than 40 cents a bushel.

The annual Canadian consumption of wheat for human use runs about 50,000,000 bushels.

Private businessmen would say nothing about what steps might be taken to meet the situation. One suggestion was that the Winnipeg Grain Exchange might be closed, but officials recalled that the British Grain Import Committee, representing Canada's main wheat customer, had urged that the market be kept open.

The higher market prices also are benefiting western farmers, who are receiving a higher price for their wheat than they could if they sold at the Wheat Board Price of 90 cents.

Convict 90 Under Price Regulations

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—The Prices Board enforcement division said today the largest number of completed prosecutions under wartime regulations recorded in a single week was reported for the seven days ended September 17, with ninety persons convicted.

Twenty-two persons were found guilty under the board's rationing and hoarding regulations.

Nine landlords and landlords' agents were sentenced and fined for breaches of rentals regulations.

Return to Work

KELOWNA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Employees of S. M. Simpson, Ltd., and Kelowna Sawmills, Ltd., have returned to work following a stoppage which occurred when 110 employees of both plants failed to appear for work on Friday, September 17. The Kelowna plant shut down, but the Simpson company was able to maintain its services to customers.

The work stoppage was to protest non-recognition of the British Columbia Woodworkers, Local No. 4 (C.C.L.). The organization has not been certified by the Provincial Department of Labor as the employees' bargaining agency as most of its members have not belonged to the union for the required three-month period.

It is understood the Department of Labor advised absentee workers that negotiations could not commence until they returned to work.

Finds Miss Smith

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP).—It was a 4,750-to-one chance, but Captain Howard Treu made it. He arrived here from the Mediterranean war theatre bearing a message, the main part being "I love you," from Sgt. John Sweeney to a "Miss Smith." The captain had a telephone number but it turned out to be wrong—and there are 4,750 Smiths in the [illegible]. In despair, he turned to The New York Daily News. His plight was unfolded Yesterday. Mrs. Helen Sweeney, the sergeant's mother, saw the story. She informed her daughter-in-law-to-be, Irene Smith, who contacted Captain Treu. The Sweeney-Smith romance had added impetus today.

SEES ACCIDENT INCREASE

LONDON (CP). — Within twenty years after the war, the number of automobiles on the roads will be twenty times greater than in 1939 and a constructive programme must be inaugurated now else there will be "increasing slaughter and mutilation on the road," said Noel Baker, parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of War Transport.

SERVING THE UNITED NATIONS WITH WAR ALCOHOL

THE "RAIN OF DEATH" IS DEADLIER BECAUSE OF WAR ALCOHOL

Here is a load of grief for Hitler . . . 1000 pound packages of concentrated destruction, made with the help of War Alcohol, and powerful enough to flatten whole city blocks.

Due to its "stabilizing" influence, alcohol is also used in tremendous quantities in the making of smokeless powder and other war materials. It is [illegible] of high explosive. It keeps planes ice-free. It keeps trucks and tanks rolling in zero temperatures. It is used in the production of synthetic rubber and plastics. It serves doctors, nurses and field dressing stations as a practical disinfectant. Alcohol is now in Battle Dress 24 hours a day. All of our plants are producing it . . . to 100% capacity . . . for the duration.

CRUISERS FOR CANADA

Canada entered this war with a naval establishment smaller than some South American republics. For the most part, the construction of coastal and sea-going protective craft and the acquisition of destroyers has come since, until today Canada has a sizable fleet, although concentrated in its lighter divisions. The announcement that six additional destroyers will be acquired from Great Britain this year and two cruisers next year, although late in the conflict, will be welcome news to officers and ratings of the Royal Canadian Navy.

Mr. Macdonald, Minister of Naval Affairs, in making the announcement this week added that it was possible that some aircraft-carrying vessels might also be added next year. All this would imply a material addition to the effectiveness of the Royal Canadian Navy in classes of ships either missing or else overworked. As a war measure, the move will require no other defence. As a continuing policy looking into the future, the addition of cruiser strength is timely, and was overdue.

There will be agreement, too, with what Mr. Macdonald said about the years after this conflict has ended, when Canada will need an effective naval policy in the protection of a heavily water-borne trade. The Minister for Naval Affairs said:

"It is my hope that after the war Canada's navy never will be reduced to its insignificant status of prewar days. The marvel is that the hearts of the officers and the men who had to labor under this condition of neglect during that period were not broken long ago."

Happily today Canada has the privilege of second thoughts, and can repair the damage done by a neglect which was a very real handicap at the outbreak of this war. Today, too, there is in the Royal Canadian Navy a volume of experience never before at the disposal of this country in the same manner. Upon that basis, Canada can build with security in the years to come. The officers and men are there, and they have given splendid service in this war. Nationhood has its equivalent obligations at sea, as well as on land.

THE CANADIAN SCOTTISH

Word that the Third Battalion of The Canadian Scottish Regiment, a Reserve Unit, is recruiting in the Greater Victoria area and requires 200 men to bring it up to full strength, as a result of voluntary enlistments from its ranks for active service, is a challenge and an opportunity in this community, its regimental home. The First Battalion is overseas, and the Second Battalion is on duty with the active force of Canada. The Third Battalion is part of Canada's Reserve Army, required for home defence.

The Canadian Scottish perpetuate one of the outstanding fighting battalions of the Great War, the 16th Battalion of the Third (Highland) Canadian Infantry Brigade. Part of the "Red Patch" First Canadian Division, C.E.F., the Battalion served from Valcartier through to the occupation of Germany after the Armistice. Ypres, Festubert, Givenchy, the Somme, Arras, Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele and all of the outstanding actions in which the original Canadian Corps took part are on its battle honors.

The 16th Battalion, made up of four Highland units, included the 50th Gordons from this city. It filled up five times over in the last war, won several Victoria Crosses, a host of other decorations, and finished, where it started, on the right of the British line. Grouped with the Gordons were the Seaforths, Camerons and Argyll and Sutherlands, separately represented in this war. It was the Sixteenth that won The Oaks at Kitchener's Wood during the Second Battle of Ypres, in association with the 10th Battalion of the same division. The First Battalion of The Canadian Scottish Regiment wears this distinction at the shoulder today.

Businessmen and others employed in the Greater Victoria area, who cannot leave but nevertheless wish to help the war effort in a practical way, have here a real opportunity. Physically fit men up to the age of fifty-five will be accepted, if they can spare one night a week for the necessary training. The training is interesting of itself, and includes work with the latest of modern war equipment. Machine gunners, signallers, transport drivers, anti-tank gunners, mortar gunners and many other skilled callings are involved. The Canadian Scottish is Victoria's own regiment, with a brilliant record in two major wars. Its call now is to this community and in a worthwhile cause.

AS NIGHT LENGTHENS

Royal Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force heavy bombers were back yesterday over Germany, taking advantage of the growing length of Autumn nights. They delivered what the Air Ministry described as a highly concentrated raid on Hanover, showering down a considerable weight of explosives and incendiaries in thirty minutes; and they also carried out secondary raids at Oldenburg and Emden. Twenty-six machines engaged failed to return. In the daylight hours that followed, United States machines struck hard at Nantes and German 'dromes on the occupied coast, continuing the cross fire which has the Luftwaffe seriously extended and still impotent.

There is little doubt that as the long Winter nights arrive, both British and United States machines will rake Germany from one end to the other with an ever-mounting weight of bombs. Saturation raids, where all of the defences are beaten down and then the targets razed completely, do not often require a second visitation. It was in this manner that the war potential of Hamburg was hammered out of existence in six straight raids, one on each section of the seaport where war work was in progress. Berlin has taken two stiff raids, besides being kept on the alert by almost nightly visits from Mosquito bombers; and there is no doubt that Berlin is on the target list for the months that lie ahead.

In the case of Hanover, fires were laid that appeared to have got the better of the fire prevention services of the enemy on the ground. The target area was well alight as successive waves of British planes made their runs over the city, and picked out their express objectives. When the last plane had turned the fires had crowned and merged, and could be seen at a considerable distance on the return journey.

A little reflection will show that what the combined air forces of the Allies can do in September will likely be redoubled by December, when all Germany can be crossed without successful interception. Mr. Churchill's hint to that effect coincides with the calendar, and is very plainly in the shape of things to come. This time it is the men of Coventry, Plymouth and Hull who will be riding to the attack, and evening a little of the score.

LEAVE IT ALONE!

Fair-minded people in Canada will concede that the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has made some progress since its inception not too many years ago, in spite of upheavals and sudden changes, and what has amounted to a governmental itch to interfere. The inconstant changes of direction, the importation of pedagogues and others with little enough knowledge of a highly technical calling, and other factors have retarded much of the progress the system could have made if it had been left alone. Will Canada try that now? Will it take one good man who has grown up in the radio business, put the management of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in his hands, and leave him alone?

National and regional boards advising and counter-advising, parliamentary and departmental inquiries, ministerial invasions of management affairs—always denied but ever recurring—have been hard on a service that had to pilot its way in a distinctly new and highly technical field. Professors for all of their erudition, or King's Counsellors with all their learning, are not perhaps the best judges of public entertainment, and that in essence is what radio broadcasting is. Nor can it be successfully argued that Parliament's guiding hand in this instance was either an understanding or a sure one.

Without looking afield to any other country, Canada should have right at home those who have grown up with the radio, and who know its possibilities. These are very great, but such possibilities never will be developed if we continue treating the nationally owned system as a cross between a political concession, and a home for men retired from wholly irrelevant professions. In Canada it has been distinctly a case of too many cooks spoiling the broth. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has been "advised" to the point where its usefulness has been curtailed and its progress retarded. Why not leave it alone, for a change?

SILENCE STILL GOLDEN

At the start of this war the public in Canada was ready enough to listen to any reasonable proposal made for the sane governance of the country and for the fullest and most effective prosecution of our share in the conflict. The same spirit exists today, but it has been driven somewhat into the background by the succession of favorable changes in favor of the United Nations in the long, grim struggle. Public heart has by no means lessened, but public caution certainly has. There is a danger in that.

There has been proof enough since the war started that the ears of the enemy are extremely far-reaching. A chance word picked up here, a laugh or chuckle there, when put together with what eyes and ears will tell any acute individual, may convey considerably more to the enemy than the public realizes. Silence is still golden in public conversation, in the press, on the radio and everywhere information that would help the enemy can be gleaned.

The average individual is apt to ask wherein does this concern him. The answer is to be found in the Intelligence services of this country, where the danger of a misplaced word is very fully appreciated. Nobody needs to talk of troop movements, of units, of equipment, of ship movements, or any of those things which can be grist to the listener's mill. The idle disclosure of seemingly unimportant trifles of information to casual acquaintances is a prolific source of real and actual damage to our side in the war. Through optimism, the habit grows. It should be checked. Chatter sells men's lives.

GOVERNMENTAL NEWSPAPERS?

A commentator in a Mainland journal envisions the day when there may be Socialist governments in various parts of Canada, and government-owned newspapers to carry their message to the people. Well, Alberta under a Social Credit Administration tried that. It was not a distinguished success. The fact is that if a newspaper ever confines itself to one expression of life to the neglect of all others it ceases to be a newspaper and becomes a propaganda sheet, no matter how sonorous or imposing may be its title. When governments have made a distinguished success of statescraft their primary problems will be solved. Until that day perhaps they had better continue to work at it, because very few of them are perfect yet.

SCOTS WHA HAE

Scots, wha hae wi' Wallace bled,
Scots, wham Bruce has often led,
Welcome to your gory bed
Or to victorie!

Now's the day, and now's the hour:
See the front o' battle lour,
See approach proud Edward's power—
Chains and slaverie!

Wha will be a traitor knave?
Wha can fill a coward's grave?
Wha sae base as be a slave?—
Let him turn, and flee!

Wha for Scotland's King and Law
Freedom's sword will strongly draw,
Freeman stand or freeman fa',
Let him follow me!

By oppression's woes and pains,
By your sons in servile chains,
We will drain our dearest veins
But they shall be free!

Lay the proud usurpers low!
Tyrants fall in every foe!
Liberty's in every blow!
Let us do, or die!

—Robert Burns

There is no one instance of a long contest, in which men did not triumph over systems. If Tyranny misses her first spring, she is cowardly as the Tiger, and retires to be hunted.—Byron: Ravenna Journal.

They say that "war is hell," the "great accursed,"
The sin impossible to be forgiven—
Yet I can look beyond it at its worst,
And still find blue in heaven.

France Kept Alive by Its Patriots, Says Commandant

"After three years of agony, the world is conscious today of the continued existence of France, kept alive by efficient underground saboteurs and patriots, and it is General de Gaulle's mission not only to continue by the British side but to co-ordinate resistance on French soil," Commandant Gabriel Bonneau, soldier of France and acting delegate to Canada of the French Committee for National Liberation, told the Canadian and Rotary Clubs at a joint luncheon Thursday in the Empress Hotel.

Attended by well over 200 members and guests of the two clubs, who listened with intense interest to what Col. H. T. Goodland called "such a thought-provoking address, so simply told," the meeting was voted one of the most important of the year.

The men of 1918 had had to pay a heavy price for their errors, the commandant said, in telling the truth "about my country."

"France has suffered from hunger to such an extent that if war goes on much longer she would be destroyed. She suffers not only from hunger but from the breaking up of her homes."

FRANCE NOT ALONE IN MISTAKES

France has paid more dearly than any other nation for mistakes she was not alone in making, he said. "One million men have been made prisoners, 800,000 civilian laborers have been taken to Germany where they are enduring slow starvation because they will not work for the German war machine, tens of thousands are in concentration camps, and close to 300,000 hide in the woods waiting for the coming of the Allies."

The will to resist and to survive has united all France, he said, and "all resistance movements have decided to carry on and to recognize De Gaulle's authority." De Gaulle has issued a manifesto, the new "Charter of France," circulated throughout the underground, which to the principles of the Republic adds that all men and women in France shall vote for the kind of country they want after the war.

"Three years of hunger, forced labor and shot hostages will lead to an upsurge of hope long-suppressed against which nothing will prevail," he said.

"The French know perfectly well why they were defeated: in the last war we lost 1,500,000 killed and 1,700,000 disabled, ninety times what America lost. There were 40,000,000 Frenchmen against 80,000,000 Germans; we were unprepared, as was Canada, Britain and the others, and the general staff was inadequate to the task. And finally came the unpardonable failure of the political party." There was no time to shoot the fifth columnists, for in six weeks the Germans were in Paris, he said.

MILITARY DEFEAT NOT STRANGE

"But the military defeat is not so strange. The Russians have fought bravely, but in the first six weeks they had yielded territory representing three times the area of all France to Germany. Russia had 300 divisions, France only 150. These were scattered throughout French Africa, Madagascar and other colonies.

"On the Belgian-German front there were only ninety-one French divisions, of which many were second-class, too old and ill-equipped, nine British and two Polish divisions. Russia had the benefit of one year to draw lessons from the campaign in France. Ours was a defeat such as awaits any army insufficiently armed and prepared."

The French want the four freedoms, they must insist on great security. They hope for an international court of arbitration, international agreement and police to guarantee protection to the little countries, Commandant Bonneau declared.

"France can be a strong partner, she has had wide experience with the German problem; but without the deep conviction of the French nation that it is her peace also, there can be no peace. Our two countries share in realization of this," he said.

Commandant Bonneau, who escaped to Egypt in 1940, and has seen fighting on many fronts in this war, has had wide diplomatic experience as well. He also spoke to the Women's Canadian Club, Thursday afternoon.

Several Sites Suggested for Yard—Several locations are now being considered by the Victoria Machinery Depot as possible sites for the new yard at which the company will build steel steamships for the Federal Government. No decision in this regard, however, will be reached until the company receives full details as to the programme which the Government has placed here, according to President C. J. V. Spratt. He stated that there is no possibility of expanding the present location of the Victoria Machinery Depot and that an entirely new site would have to be secured.

In Favor of Warehouse—A meeting of businessmen interested in the cold storage warehouse project is to be held at the Driard tomorrow evening, to hear the proposition of Mr. Strouss, who has recently visited the cities of the Sound and inspected the warehouses in service there. Mr. Strouss favors the formation of a local company, and thinks that an expenditure of not more than $75,000 will be amply sufficient. He will give his views in detail tomorrow night.

Esquimalt Boy Picks Up Wealthy Wallet

NANAIMO, Sept. 23.—Coming out of the late show at the Capitol Theatre, Wednesday night, Tony Dybek left his wallet containing six $100 bills and his registration card on the seat he had occupied. He reported his loss to local police today at 3:40 p.m.

At 6 o'clock tonight police received a phone call from William McCall, Esquimalt Road, Victoria, stating his young son had been in Nanaimo Wednesday night, and found a wallet with $600 and had taken it home "for advice." The father's advice had been to "tell the police." Mr. Dybek will receive his money back.

Railwaymen

Since that time, it is understood, a number of conferences have been held, but the presentation of an application to the National Board is taken as an indication that no agreement has been reached.

The procedure in applications to the board is that following application the brief of the applicant is made available to the other side which is given time to prepare its own case and a reply. The applicant then has an opportunity to prepare a rebuttal. Because of the broad scope of the railway case it is likely considerable time will be required for this procedure and an early hearing is not considered likely.

The unions in their notice served on the railways said that "almost all of the large Canadian industries have granted their employees one and in some cases two increases in wages during the present war but railway employees have not been given increases since 1927."

At that time the unions said also that railway workers in the United States had received two increases in recent years and were then in the process of obtaining a third. They asked that new rates established for "running" trades in Canada equal those resulting from the latest application of United States railwaymen.

Included in the "running" trades are engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and yardmen.

Navy League Needs Funds to Extend Sea Cadet Quarters

"Naval officers in the East are loud in the praise of the Rainbow division of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets; they seem to excel in signalling. And I am especially pleased that in every enemy action in which Canadian seamen have been recognized for bravery, a former cadet has either been decorated or mentioned in dispatches," H. R. Gillard, managing secretary of the Navy League of Canada, said in an interview at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Mr. Gillard is in Victoria to discuss the possibility of raising badly needed funds for the extension of present facilities. J. R. K. Millen, assistant sea cadet co-ordinator, will join him today.

"The sea cadet movement is a continuing project of great benefit to boys from twelve to seventeen. Before the war we had less than 3,000. Now over 5,000 have gone into the services, 12,000 are enrolled and we want still more."

An important new project being sponsored by the league is the collection of 5,000 pairs of petrolatum-impregnated socks, which can save countless sailors from gangrene, which would mean loss of limbs.

Surgeon-Captain C. H. Best, R.C.N.V.R., co-discoverer of insulin and director of the Banting Institute, helped perfect this entirely new method of saving men from "immersion feet."

Mr. Gillard told how once forty shipwrecked men were brought in to Halifax and the Navy League had put in urgent calls to Toronto and other points and members had procured ice-bags and other equipment to give the men treatment which would save them from gangrene. By 7 in the morning, more than enough supplies had been procured. Now spiral-knit socks impregnated with a pound of special petroleum jelly each were to be placed in lifeboats.

Two million sailors have been cared for in various hospitals of the Navy League, and 24 hostels operate, besides 400 working branches. Prince Robert House here will have an extension costing some $13,000 ready in about a month.

Sleeping accommodation in the past six months had already exceeded that of all last year, and meals given had increased tremendously. Naval officials were high in their praise of the work done at Prince Robert House and of the league as a whole, he said.

out from the Kuban to the Crimea. But the last remaining railway to Crimea is nearly cut. Soviet forces are at Melitopol, while to the north they are nearly back again at the great Dnieper Dam which they destroyed in their first retreat eastwards before the invaders.

The hardest fighting lately has been around Poltava, where Von Hoth's formidable panzer army is located. He is falling back, however, evidently with the object of protecting Kremenchug.

The Royal Air Force has heavily bombed German airdromes on Crete, Rhodes and in Greece itself, to pin down enemy aircraft which have been attacking the newly-won islands of Cos, Leros and Samos in the Dodecanese and in the Aegean Sea.

Carefully-planned combined operations with British troops of the Middle East Command captured the Island of Cos first, and afterwards the important naval base of Leros.

South Africans participated with famous British desert scouts with experience in North African fighting. The Luftwaffe attacked soon afterwards but lost heavily. Leros has a fine harbor and is a notable gain for British forces.

Editorially, dealing with the proposed "pay as you earn" system of income tax collection, The Times says the new plan for Britain effectively circumvents almost all difficulties which have come to light under the same system in Canada and the United States, especially the danger of initial over-taxation of large numbers of incomes. The weekly wage earner will now be freed from his present worries about tax arrears.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

According to Culbertson

One of the primary functions of a redouble is telling partner to let the opponents' next bid, if any, come around to the redoubler for action. It does not follow, however, that those "instructions" should always be obeyed. For example:

West, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.
Match-point duplicate.

NORTH
♠ K Q 7
♥ J 8 4
♦ A 9 2
♣ A 7 5 3

WEST
♠ 9 8 5 4
♥ A K Q 10 7 5
♦ Q J 6

EAST
♠ A J 8 2
♥ 9 3
♦ K 7 5
♣ K Q 6 4

SOUTH
♠ 10 3
♥ 8 2
♦ 10 8 4 3
♣ J 10 9 8 2

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1 ♥	Double	Redbl.	2 ♣
Pass	Pass	Double	Pass
Pass	Pass

It took considerable self-restraint on West's part, first to pass to the two club bid, and, second, to leave in the double of that contract. He had great confidence in his partner, however, and although the leave-in of such a double when void of the doubled suit is not usually the best practice, he decided to gamble it out this time. The result was excellent from the East-West point of view, but I am strongly inclined to feel that West's "obedience" was a mistake and that it was only because declarer played the hand badly that West did not regret his decision.

Three rounds of hearts were played at the start, declarer ruffing the third while East discarded a spade. Declarer then led a low club to the ace and, when West showed out, probably became a bit rattled. The diamond ace was cashed and a low diamond was continued, East ducking. West's jack won and a low spade was returned, dummy's queen being captured by the ace. East now took charge of the trump situation, cashing the king and queen, then forcing out declarer's last trump by exiting with the six spot. Declarer led a diamond which East won. East carefully laid down the spade jack to smother declarer's possible ten spot. Dummy's low spade became a heritage to the defenders and rounded out a penalty of 800 points.

Declarer should have saved a trick and thereby obtained an excellent score for his own team. He had no right to expect a good trump break, considering East's prompt double, hence should not have touched trumps. He should have played to ruff one spade and one heart and to surrender, in all, one spade, two hearts, two diamonds and two clubs. A 500 point penalty would have been cheap since East-West could have made a vulnerable game.

First Air Staff College to Open In Canada Soon

TORONTO, Sept. 23 (CP).—Canada's first air staff college, modelled closely after the R.A.F. staff college established in England in 1920, will be officially opened here October 4, it was announced today.

The college will perform much the same function for the R.C.A.F. as the Canadian junior war staff course at Kingston, Ont., does for the army, providing administrative training for selected Canadian airmen.

Courses will take ten weeks and it is expected thirty-six officers will be accommodated during each course.

One of the main objectives is to instruct students in complete co-ordination between the various services so that key officers will have a complete understanding of the interdependency and relation of the R.C.A.F. with the army and navy.

The directing staff includes: Group Capt. R. M. McKay, Winnipeg, chief instructor, and Group Capt. G. H. Sellers, A.F.O., Winnipeg.

McIntosh Apples Start to Move

KELOWNA, B.C., Sept. 23 (CP).—The British Columbia McIntosh apple crop started moving this week, with demand heavy from all markets as far east as Montreal. There was no spectacular opening this year such as has been a feature of previous years.

The crop this season is a quality one. Cool nights and warm days have added color to the fruit, and 1,400,000 boxes of "Macs" are estimated from the Okanagan. This will amount to 38 per cent of the Okanagan apple crop.

Advent of the McIntosh comes as the soft fruits are disappearing from the markets. Peaches, prunes and plums are either finished or will end this week. The cantaloup season is nearly done. Grapes are now being shipped, but the crop is light.

Longest Mail Stage Route in World Opened to Whitehorse

Daily Schedule Northbound and Southbound Will Serve 1,000-Mile Stretch in 72 Hours

DAWSON CREEK, B.C., Sept. 23 (CP).—Described as the longest stage mail route in the world, the 1,000-mile overland postal service from this southern supply base on the Alaska Highway to Whitehorse, Y.T., was inaugurated here today. The service will be on a daily schedule, northbound and southbound.

United States army postal trucks, carrying five tons of letters and parcels for Canadian and American highway workers and residents of towns and construction camps along the route, started on the long trek. Before the seventy-two-hour trip is completed the trucks will climb two mountain ranges and plough through muskeg to get the mail through.

Thirteen stops, each about ninety miles apart, will be made at various Canadian civilian and United States army post offices.

The undertaking, a joint Canada-United States plan, will serve the whole Yukon territory and will give workers and residents in Canada's Northwest service that will rival delivery in many parts of the North American continent. It is hoped to chop the seventy-two-hour highway trip to an even sixty hours.

SORTING POINT AT EDMONTON

Sorting point for the service is at Edmonton and from there Canadian postal officials route the mail by railway to Dawson Creek, a one-day haul. The American postal service then takes over, carrying the mail to the northern end of the road. The first mail left Edmonton Wednesday.

The new system is a considerable improvement over the previous service. Mail for Canadians in the Yukon was sent from Edmonton to Vancouver, by boat to Skagway and finally over White Pass and the Yukon railway line to Whitehorse. Boat schedules were uncertain and mail arrived an average of five or six times a month.

Mail for American soldiers and civilians was routed from Edmonton to Seattle and then by boat to the north. This schedule also was uncertain. The same circumstances prevailed in the southbound delivery, but this has been eliminated by the new system.

Postal rates are the same as those prevailing in the rest of Canada and in the United States.

SUBJECT DISCUSSED AT WHITEHORSE

The subject of the improved route was discussed at Whitehorse some time ago by Canadian and American postal officials and officers of the American army. Canadian representatives included G. H. Clarke, district director of postal services at Vancouver; George Herring, chief superintendent of air and land mail services in Canada; and T. J. Reilly, district superintendent, postal services, Edmonton.

Col. K. D. Bush represented Brig.-Gen. James A. O'Connor, officer commanding the U.S. northwest service command. Other American officers included Major H. C. Walters, of San Francisco, postal officer for the northwest service command, and Capt. W. C. Yeiser, of Shreveport, La., postal officer, northwest division, U.S. Engineers.

Making Repairs on Damaged Freighter

The freighter which went ashore on Fiddle Reef, Oak Bay, over the week-end, and beached in the shelter of Cadboro Bay to prevent her sinking, is now being lightened preparatory to refloating.

She was taken to Cadboro Bay with a hole in the hull caused when she struck the reef, and with the bow awash. Cargo is being removed, and a patch placed over the opening.

Oil from the ship's tanks has been spreading over the bay.

The first printing press was shipped to England in 1475 by William Caxton.

Need Coal for Italian Trains

LONDON, Sept. 23 (CP).—Britain, hard pressed to find sufficient fuel for industries and domestic consumption, is faced with the added problem of supplying Allied forces in Italy, and perhaps civilian needs there as well.

As a starter, fuel must be rushed to Italy to keep railways operating as they come under Allied control.

Most Britons believe they will shortly have to do with less coal in order to supply Italy's basic needs, but there is no doubt that the sending to Italy of any commodities which are needed in Britain would be resented. And the people are particularly sensitive about the coal position.

Strikes, shortage of labor and increased industrial coal consumption have created serious production problems in the coalfields. At least 30,000 more miners are urgently needed.

Nevertheless, South Wales collieries have been asked to submit estimates of coal they could supply for use in Italy.

Since Italy's fall suggestions have been made that Italian prisoners in Britain be sent to the pits to provide necessary manpower. "Italy needs coal . . . let Italians dig it," said The Sunday Dispatch.

Vessel Torpedoed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP).—The navy announced today the torpedoing of a medium-sized United States merchant vessel by an enemy submarine in the Indian Ocean in mid-June. Survivors have been landed at Key West, Fla.

Retreads Now Are Obtainable

No Tire Ration Permit Needed by Car Owners

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP).—Munitions Minister Howe announced today that all passenger car owners now may have their tires retreaded with passenger type camelback without a tire ration permit.

The new order does not affect the conditions governing the sale of new tires for essential passenger cars. Applicants must continue to certify that their tires or tubes are completely unusable and cannot possibly be repaired and kept in service.

Reclaim rubber, which is made from old tires and tubes, is used primarily for mixing with other rubber in making military or essential vehicle tires. Small quantities, however, now can be diverted to the retreading of passenger car tires, the minister said.

"The collection of old tires and tubes must continue if we are to satisfy present and future demands for reclaim rubber," said A. H. Williamson, rubber controller.

Will Take Vote

VANCOUVER, Sept. 23 (CP).—Decision as to whether or not they will accept terms of re-entry into the Canadian Congress of Labor will be made by the members of the Boilermakers' Union, Local No. 1, here, some time next week.

Thomas Mackenzie, secretary-treasurer, said the union executive will meet Monday to set the date. William Stewart, union president, is expected to return Sunday from the Congress convention bearing definite details of the terms upon which the Congress bases its offer to accept the boilermakers back into the fold.

I. D. Williams and D. M. Cameron, British Columbia Shipping Federation representatives. The Labor Board boosted the men's bonus from seven to nine cents.

Say Reduction In Shipyards' Staffs Coming

VANCOUVER, Sept. 23 (CP).—The Province said today freighter launchings in Vancouver shipyards will be slowed by an additional twenty days and the present seven-day continuous production programme replaced by a five-and-one-half-day week, with night shifts probably eliminated.

Recently the time required from keel-laying to launching was extended from sixty to eighty days. Under the new schedule it will be 100 days, the paper said.

Shipyard staffs here will be reduced gradually by 4,000 to 6,000 men, who will be diverted to other essential industries, the paper said. It added that the slowdown will be general throughout Canada and probably the United States, due to the improved shipping situation.

Carpenters to Get Pay Boost

VANCOUVER, Sept. 23 (CP).—An increase of 10 cents an hour, making the basic rate $1 per hour for carpenters throughout British Columbia, has been approved by the Regional War Labor Board and the Western Labor Board, Lawrence Anderson, business agent for the Amalgamated Shipwrights Local No. 2, said today.

The boost was first approved by the Regional Board and later by the Western Board, he said, adding that the rate is now being paid only to employers whose employers made a joint application to increase the basic rate.

All general contractors made such joint applications, he said, and the new rate is in effect in that category.

Special Cattle Train

KAMLOOPS, B.C., Sept. 23 (CP).—A special C.N.R. train of more than forty cars will bring 1,200 head of cattle here October 3 for the Central British Columbia Livestock Association's sale October 7.

Women's Canadian Club Greets French Visitors

COMMANDANT and Mme. Gabriel Bonneau were guests of honor at the first meeting of the Autumn season of the Women's Canadian Club held Thursday afternoon in the lower lounge of the Empress Hotel. Commandant Bonneau was speaker, choosing as his subject "The National Committee of Liberation," an address which he also gave before members of the Canadian Club.

Mme. Bonneau was an interested listener and was guest of honor at tea following the meeting, and again when she and her distinguished husband held a small reception for friends of France and members of L'Alliance France Libre, who welcomed the opportunity to discuss matters pertaining to France with the visitors.

Wearing fashionable black, Mme. Bonneau was striking with her blonde hair and smart, pill-box, black suit, and black satin blouse. She wore a diamante and ruby red enamel pendant, and her corsage bouquet was composed of red roses and swainsona, tied with tri-color ribbon. Mme. Bonneau chose distinctive jewelry; on her right hand she wore a handsome dinner-ring, three sapphires set in diamond and platinum, and a unique gold bracelet, fashioned with coins. On her left hand she wore a solitaire diamond. Commandant and Mme. Bonneau have two small sons, aged six and eight years, and Mrs. F. G. Aldous, who was in the chair and introduced the speaker, informed the meeting they have traveled almost around the world.

SAW ACTION IN SOUDAN

Commandant Bonneau, who joined the Free French in 1940 in Egypt, saw action in the Soudan, and gave a thought-provoking talk which was optimistic in vein and explanatory in substance. Of especial interest to women was the remark the speaker made, "When France will be liberated all the men and women will vote." This will be part of the new charter, and the franchise for women will be the only difference from the Third Republic laws in force in June, 1940.

Commandant Bonneau warned against propaganda being spread which is dangerous to France, its aim being to separate France and her natural allies. He pondered the question of a lasting peace, which would necessitate an international court of justice, bringing arbitration in its train; an international system of banking to help the smaller countries; an international army, whereby the decisions of international peace organizations could be enforced, and emphatically he advised the complete disarmament of Germany and Japan.

SOLOS DELIGHT ASSEMBLY

Mme. H. Archibald moved a sincere vote of thanks to Commandant Bonneau at the close of his address.

Mrs. Gwen Brown delighted the assembly with two solos, "Valley of Laughter," and "Trees," the accompaniments being artistically rendered by Mrs. G. A. McCurdy.

Mrs. F. G. Aldous graciously welcomed the members after the Summer holidays, and told the club that owing to war conditions which have removed many of the men from the staff of the Empress Hotel it will not be possible to reserve the ballroom as formerly. Only an Friday will the club meetings be held at the Empress. The next meetings will take place on Tuesday, September 28, at the Oak Bay Theatre, when Lt.-Col. St. John, D.S.O., M.C., F.R.G.S., will speak on India, and on October 19 the meeting will take place at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The executive will be interested to hear which meeting place is favored by the club.

It was decided to hold a Fall bazaar on Thursday afternoon, November 4, in the S.O.E. Hall. The next meeting will take place on October 7 at 7:30 o'clock, to be followed by a card game. Good prizes will be given.

University Women

The meeting of the University Women's Club of Victoria, will be held on Monday next at 8 o'clock at St. Margaret's School (Fern Street entrance). The speaker, Mr. F. C. Prospective members and guests will be welcome and an outline of the club's activities for the year will be discussed.

Zelotes Club

The second meeting of the Fall season of the Zelotes took place Wednesday night in the clubrooms, with Miss Anne Adamson, vice-president, in the chair. Business included plans for war work, entertainment for the forces, and a party to be held Saturday night for twenty-five naval officers. Mrs. Madge Hall, first vice-president of the British Columbia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and honorary president of the Zelotes Club, spoke on the development of the Business and Professional Women's Club through the years. Before the war these clubs were functioning in twenty-seven countries. Mrs. Hall's talk was most enjoyable and instructive, and in finishing, she gave thought to the postwar period. Guests at the meeting were Miss Parcell, president of the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and Miss Birk, president of the Ottawa Club, who is spending a holiday in Victoria. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 13, in the clubrooms, when new members will be welcomed.

I.O.D.E. Chapters

ESQUIMALT CHAPTER

The regent, Mrs. C. L. Bishop, presided at the meeting of Mary Croft Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Thursday afternoon at headquarters. Mrs. Bishop will represent the chapter at the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial I.O.D.E. in Nanaimo on October 5 and 6. Mrs. J. Quinn, the standard bearer, will accompany her. The success of the recent Victory Fair, undertaken by the I.O.D.E., was mentioned by Mrs. Bishop, and she spoke in appreciative terms of the support given by all members to her particular stall, the home cooking. The resignation of Mrs. C. T. Sherwood from the position of treasurer was accepted, and it was announced that at the next meeting a secretary and treasurer will be appointed. The treasurer's report showed the sum of $169.77 in the general account and $43.55 in the war account. Mrs. Quinn reported that 6,500 magazines, fifty bound books and a gramophone and 150 records, as well as 200 pounds of magazines (sent from Provincial) were collected during the past month for distribution. The war convener, Mrs. E. O. Norton, said that the chapter will fill twelve ditty bags for the Navy League. Mrs. Bishop has taken over the convenership of the work for the Navy League owing to the resignation of Mrs. J. Mason. It was announced that the Mary Croft Esquimalt Victory Bond contest will close at the next meeting on October 11. At the opening of the meeting the members stood in silent sympathy to Mrs. D. McIntyre on the loss of her son; Mr. H. O. Austin on the loss of his wife, who was secretary of the chapter for many years; Mrs. C. Bishop and Mrs. H. Allan on the loss of their brother.

What Today Means

LIBRA

If September 24 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. until noon, from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m., from 6 to 8 p.m. and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

It may be a part of wisdom to remember today that "still water runs deep," and those who have the least to say are apt to have the most information. It will pay to be open-minded today, for there are apt to be changes occurring that will make a change of some of your convictions advisable. Current events may require your placing a liberal interpretation on some of the things you hear, if you wish people to regard you as having up-to-date and progressive views. Ambition is laudable only so long as it does not serve as an inspiration to try to undermine others in the hope of attaining an objective. Today may be filled with many temptations for people to try to do this very thing, so listen to your conscience and do nothing that you know is wrong or not according to principle. Married and engaged couples, and those around whose hearts Cupid has cast his coils of love, should let no secret doubts or fears spoil their day, for the chances are they will be without any basis or foundation.

If a woman and September 24 is your birthday, never advance a poor memory as an excuse for your failure to live up to any kind of a promise, for few people will accept it gracefully and their recollection of it may be of an unfortunately long duration. Make it a rule "to do unto others as you would have them do unto you," if you wish to find this old world an easy place to live in. Be careful not to let any unusual condition affect your affectionate and sympathetic disposition, for it is apt to be only temporary and will soon be forgotten. As a lecturer, librarian, critic, news reporter, fiction writer, editor, milliner, modiste, designer, secretary, business manager, actress, artist, musician, singer, or as an enthusiastic worker for the Allies' cause, you can expect to have exceptionally fine results. Your adaptability to married life should enable you to make a huge success of yours.

The child born on September 24 must never be permitted to believe that by arguing it can sooner or later gain its point. Children born on this date can be readily taught that when a simple explanation is vouchsafed them it should be regarded as sufficient. It requires very little work on the part of the average Libra's child's parents to develop in their youngster all of the qualities and attributes needed to overcome the barriers that stand between it and success.

If a man and September 24 is your natal day, an insatiable desire to succeed will prevent your ever acknowledging defeat and will spur you on until you meet with success. You probably fight hardest when your back is to the wall or when the odds appear to be hopelessly against you. Through your indomitable will power you ought to be able to overcome any and every kind of difficulty, especially if you are a skilled mechanic, engineer, inventor, publisher, manufacturer, sales executive, scientist, journalist, educator, promoter, political leader, or through demonstrations of your patriotism in the air, on the high seas, or upon the battlefield.

WANTS SPORTSMAN VICAR

LONDON (CP). — Lt.-Col. John Dane Player bequeathed a large farmhouse residence with 100 acres to the Vicar of Wartnaby, providing no incumbent is appointed who does not approve of, hunting, shooting, football or "other manly sports as develop the best qualities of mankind."

HARVESTERS ARRIVING

EDMONTON, Sept. 23 (CP).—A. O. MacLachlan, acting Selective Service officer here, said today that orders from 200 farmers in the Edmonton area for farm help are being filled slowly. Harvesters are arriving from Ontario at the rate of about ten to 15 daily and are being rapidly absorbed, he added.

Lions Speaker Urges Support of Community Chest

"The Community Chest symbolizes a community effort for something worthwhile, and puts morale into the hearts of those who are helped," Dr. W. W. McPherson, minister of Oak Bay United Church, stated in an address urging support of the Community Chest drive before members of the Lions Club at a luncheon in Spencer's dining-room on Thursday.

The care bestowed upon homeless children; the counsel given to couples who could not solve their problems; the aid and cheer rendered to the aged, and the assistance given to the blind were some of the benefits derived from the citizens' efforts, Dr. McPherson pointed out.

"It creates an interest in humanity, higher than class or empire interests—one of the greatest interests of all," the speaker declared.

He gave instances of the uplifting work done by the Children's Aid Society and the Family Welfare Association, and spoke of the justifiable reasons for the Community Chest.

"The services are dove-tailed, and duplications are eliminated," he explained.

Dr. McPherson stated the objective of the drive was $65,000, and suggested that each citizen should plan to give one day's wages to the fund.

RATIONS RAISE MONEY

MALDEN, England (CP).—Wardens in this Surrey village collected a spoonful of tea and another of sugar from every house in the area, and the novel idea provided more than 1,000 cups of tea, which sold at a shilling each at a fete in aid of the Red Cross. More than $6,000 was raised.

Reeve Lockley and Councillor Eaton To Run for Reeve

Councillor F. G. Eaton yesterday made public his intention of contesting the office of reeve of Esquimalt municipality in December. "Municipal circles have known of my intention for over a month now," Mr. Eaton said. A councillor for six years, he has spent most of his life in Victoria and Esquimalt, except for four years overseas.

Speaking of the U.B.C.M. convention at Port Alberni, from which he has just returned, he said: "I was very glad to be there, and I can say that it was helpful. As it was, I was Esquimalt's only representative, and this was the first time in eight years that our municipality took part in the convention."

Reeve Alex Lockley, questioned as to his intentions, said it was too early to talk of elections, since campaigning did not tend to promote harmony in the council. "As far as I know I'll be running again." Mr. Lockley has been reeve continuously for the past eight years and was in office a number of years previously.

WHEAT SHIPMENTS

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP). Wheat shipments to Greece, started a year ago as a gift from the Canadian people to the valiant Greeks, totaled 645,151 bushels in August, Trade Minister MacKinnon announced today. Shipments to date total 6,358,000 bushels.

WOMEN CONDUCTORS

EDMONTON, Sept. 23 (CP).—Thomas Ferrier, street railway superintendent, said today women conductors will be placed in service on the main lines of the Edmonton street railway system during the first week in October. Ten women now are taking their initial training.

Congestion of Grain Cars in East Is Serious

FORT WILLIAM, Sept. 23 (CP).—A serious congestion of grain cars continued today in lakehead railway yards, although there has been a slight improvement during the past two weeks.

There were 4,100 cars of grain in lakehead rail terminals yesterday, 400 less than several weeks ago when rail shipments of grain from the West to the lakehead were reduced and through shipments from West to East were started in volume.

Only hope of resuming normal conditions in lakehead terminals is believed by rail officials to be a rush of shipments by boat in November when it is expected ore-carrying cargoes will be lessened and many vessels will be concentrated on transportations of grain.

Shortage of labor is affecting some elevators in unloading grain cars.

When vessels in the iron ore trade swing over to transportation of grain in November, they are expected to take East as high as 5,000,000 bushels daily, which would clear up the present congested situation in about two weeks.

Urge Women to Work in Plants

LONDON, Sept. 23 (CP).—Urging every provision be made for "the titanic struggle facing us in 1944," Labor Minister Ernest Bevin said today that the Cabinet has given priority to aircraft construction and urged women up to fifty to go to work in plane factories at once.

In a review of Great Britain's manpower situation before the House of Commons he reported that:

Mobilization has reached a stage not excelled in any other country.

Nearly 23,000,000 out of 33,000,000 persons between fourteen and sixty-four who are available for work are in the armed services, civil defence or part-time employment.

Seven million women are doing part-time work. More than 1,000,000 women are doing voluntary, non-paid jobs.

Ninety-one per cent of Britain's unmarried women between eighteen and forty are employed. More than 80 per cent of childless married women in that group also are working.

More than 1,000,000 men and women over sixty-five are in the war effort.

Two and a quarter million more people are employed in munitions making than at the end of the last war.

The Red Cross announced that the Japanese had asked that letters to prisoners be limited to twenty-five words and should be typewritten or written in block capitals.

Nurse Maude Brown, twenty-four, who telephoned Loughborough Hospital and, imitating an air-raid warden, ordered all lights to be extinguished so she could enter the building and steal drugs, was sentenced to six months in jail. Police said she escaped from Jersey during the Nazi occupation of that Island.

Ghost of My Love

By OREN ARNOLD

CHAPTER XVI

Bill St. Clair drove back to the ghost town of Lightning with a quiet fury settling in his heart. Uncle Pete Quincy came out to meet him.

"She—she—she," the old fellow stuttered whenever he was unduly disturbed, "she never came back yet!"

Bill understood. "I saw her in Option, Uncle Pete. You are talking about Rosemary."

"Yes, mum."

"I saw her, but I didn't speak to her. She's—okay." Bill added that last, bitterly. And then, "Uncle Pete, you told me there's a safe in your hotel. A vault."

"Yes, mum."

"Can you lock something in it for me?"

"I'll show it to you," Uncle Pete said.

They went back to the ancient desk there at the clerk's counter, turned down an alcove and came to an iron door set in the rock masonry wall. Uncle Pete had a key.

Inside the vault was fifty years of cobwebs, dust and gloom. Bill stood a minute just looking. He saw books that must have held the hotel's early accounts. He saw a pile of old photographs, and a doll with a broken head—stored no doubt for some child who would herself have grandchildren. The very air here reeked of another century.

Bill took a pistol from his coat pocket. One of the two he had bought from Uncle Pete. He laid it on a metal shelf and turned to go.

"Keep it locked for me, Uncle Pete," he directed. "I'm afraid to carry it any more."

That confused the old fellow, but he asked, "You afraid to shoot it?"

Bill answered laconically. "No. I'm just afraid I will!"

"Huh," grunted Uncle Pete. "Rosemary gimme hers back, too."

"She did?" Bill was astonished.

"Yes, mum. And she said she was afraid she might shoot, too. Huh!"

This didn't make sense. All around it didn't make sense. Bill St. Clair tried to get more facts from his old friend here, but Uncle Pete drifted off into one of his mental hazes, talking of lizards and eagles, and of coyotes that had built a den up street under the Lightning Opera House and raised puppies there. He wanted to show the puppies to Bill, and he wanted to show Bill the owls that lived now in the steeple of the old Lightning public school.

His childlike friendliness lured Bill on, because the young man was sick at heart and needed a sympathetic companion. Love of the deepest sort had slipped up on Bill St. Clair—too late. On top of that, his business efforts here in the West had met frustration at every turn. Despair rode him as he trudged up the ghost street now with the old man.

"Uncle Pete, confound it all, were you ever in love with a woman?"

"Yes, mum," Uncle Pete said.

"You were? Devil of a condition, isn't it? Why didn't you marry her?"

"She died."

"Oh . . . Oh, gosh. Sorry, Uncle Pete. Shame, by George it is."

They said no more of Uncle Pete's romance, but the old fellow eyed Bill closely now. Presently he nodded his head. It was as if strange wisdom darted around inside his mind, mixed with many trivial things. They looked at the coyote pups and the owls, and at a mother skunk and four lovely babies who ambled single file from under All Creeds Church. The church was perhaps the prettiest building in Lightning, and somewhat less ghostly than the others. Vandals — human and otherwise—had done less damage here. Abruptly Uncle Pete sat on the steps and indicated that Bill was to sit there, too.

"His name is Boyle," said the old man out of a blue sky.

"What! For gosh sakes, Uncle Pete, what do you know about Boyle?"

"Yes, mum."

"Yes, mum? What do you mean, yes, mum? Listen to me!" Bill was jittery now; he who was usually so well poised. The people back in Washington wouldn't have known this Little Boss. "Has Rosemary been talking to you, Uncle Pete?"

"Yes, mum." The old man was servility itself. A seventy-two-year-old child.

"What did she say? About Boyle?"

Uncle Pete stared at him dumbly. "He—he—he called me Funny Whiskers."

"Tell him to go to h—. Hey—where did you see him? Was he here?"

"Yes, mum."

"When? When, Uncle Pete?"

The hazy old fellow just blinked. "Well, then—when did Rosemary—I mean, what did she say about him? What did she tell you?"

"She doesn't like him, either," Uncle Pete said.

"Are you sure? Do you know she's his—look here, you're Rosemary's friend."

"Yes, mum."

"Then look—you have to take care of Rosemary, Uncle Pete. You and I both, understand me?" Bill had stood up now. He had grasped the bearded old man's shoulders, and unconsciously he shook them in the intensity of his feeling. "If Harry Boyle is scouting around, there's something in the wind. Uncle Pete, no matter what happens, you see to it Rosemary is safe. Always. It's your task. Yours and—mine. Promise me!"

"Yes, mum."

"I think she's trying to do something she doesn't want to. And by glory, if that Boyle——" Bill broke off, thinking. All at once he changed his tone. He was calm again, but more ominous. "See here, Uncle Pete, I want that pistol back, after all. Let's go get it. Now."

For a long moment he got no answer. Uncle Pete looked at Bill's eyes, then he slowly shook his head.

NO. 242—EIGHTY-FIFTH YEAR VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1943

Glancing Over — Sport—

By JOE DELAHUNTY

THE DAY'S ROUND-UP

There's one race bettor at the Willows track who really is honest. She answers to the name of Mrs. S. W. Morris, of Winnipeg. The other day she cashed in one of her tickets and after leaving the wicket she discovered that the man who paid out had tossed in five dollars too much. The Winnipeg lady returned immediately to the wicket, explained her mission, and returned the five-spot. There's not one person in a hundred who would do that . . . This corner is sorry to hear the news of the death in North Africa of Sgt. Pilot "Teddy" Robinson, former well-known athlete. We all knew him as "Teddy" on the Rugby field and the basketball court, two sports he loved so well. During his teaching days at the University School he was a frequent visitor to the sports room. Many a time we lapped up a few "suds" with him while we played billiards at the club. Our regrets go out to his wife and members of his family . . . Another narrow victory placed the Yankees within reach of their seventh flag in the last eight years of campaigning in the American League. It won't be long now before McCarthy's crew tacks the pennant to the flag pole in the big stadium in New York . . . Jockeys Alex Haller and Billy Slocum are running neck and neck for the riding honors at the Oak Bay racing strip. The champion for the meet will, undoubtedly, be decided on the final day—next Monday afternoon.

ODDS AND ENDS

Officials of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association will gather this evening to decide on the provincial play-off games for the various divisions. Understand that Ted Menzies' Royal Canadian Air Force boxla boys are training diligently for the senior British Columbia series and are hoping to go their best licks against the strong Mainland winners. Experience may beat them, but one thing is certain, they will be in there fighting from the drop of the hat . . . Hec Highton, Vancouver goal tender, and Bus Brayshaw, still the property of the V.M.D. Hockey Club, have been tendered offers from the Chicago Black Hawks for the coming season. Coach Paul Thompson has even intentions of taking both lads to the training camp of the Hawks at Hibbing, Minnesota. If Brayshaw accepts the offer, which he will no doubt, the National Hockey League will have to part with $500 for his services . . . Your sports editor received a fine basket of apples on Wednesday from a girl who signed her name as "Mary." After a little sleuthing as to where they came from, I found out that they were relayed to the social department, then to my assistant and finally landed on the sports desk. However, they were fine apples, so we say: "Thanks very much to the mysterious Mary" . . . Something big is going to bust wide open on the local hockey front one of these bright days, so Mr. and Mrs. Phan be prepared for some important news. The hockey pot is boiling briskly at the present time and the rumors are gradually simmering away into thin air. The news may come from Ottawa, still it may break right here in Victoria or possibly Vancouver, one never knows, but it's coming as sure as the downfall of the Axis, so keep your "peepers" glued to the dailies.

REMEMBER THE 1902 RACE?

They blame the war for the one-horse race in the National League this year, figuring that the St. Louis Cardinals could replace losses to the services better than their rivals because of their well-cultivated farms. Which probably is true enough, and it gives the league a good alibi for the absence of its traditionally close race. We wonder a little, however, how the season of 1902 was explained to the fans, as at that time the nation was resting between wars and there weren't extenuating circumstances. That 1902 season makes the current race seem like a photo finish, and although the 1943 Cards arrived at the pennant September 18, you might ask what detained them after considering the fact that the Pittsburgh Pirates of 1902 clinched their pennant on September 1, and finished the season with a lead of twenty-seven and a half games. It was a season of 142 games, which makes the Pirates' feat the more remarkable. Since the 154-game schedule was adopted the Cards of 1931, who clinched the flag on September 16, hold the record for early finishers.

The Giants had not finished last since 1915 until this year, and that year it was quite a rousing last, as they won sixty-nine games and finished [illegible] which, as this is written, would be close to the first division. The Cubs of 1906, with their percentage of .763, didn't win by the most games on record, but they led the last-place Boston clubs by sixty-six and a half games. Did somebody say the Phillies used to be bad?

So the Cardinals this year, although winning as they pleased, are quite a ways from setting records, either in winning percentages or in the size of their margin. They might break the Yankees' record for the margin of victory—nineteen and a half games in 1936, but that would be like breaking a swimming record in a sail boat. It's two different divisions of competition.

Divulge Scores in Juvenile Event

Bancroft and Snider Bangtail Cops Racing Feature—Haller Leading Rider

Packing top impost of 122 pounds, and leaving the starting gate as odds-on favorite, Divulge, two-year-old gelding from the Bancroft and Snider Stables, copped the juvenile purse event, feature race on yesterday's racing programme at the Willows. Jockey Alec Haller was in the saddle.

Mrs. L. Copenhaver's Doc McKeon, also well-backed in the mutuels, lugged in a good performance and finished right behind the winner, while Lady Double, one of the two long shots in the race, was third. Laura G. received plenty of support from the punters but lost all chances of being close when she went wide on two occasions.

Killarney L., locally-owned thoroughbred, scored his first victory of the present meeting and his second win on British Columbia tracks this season, when he took the fourth race at six furlongs and thirty yards. Easily the best event on the programme, the race provided a thrilling stretch duel and a photo finish in which the winner scored by a nose over Ebony Latch. Maginot Line was third.

Going more than seven furlongs for the first time this season, Wee Biddy came up with a mild upset in the fifth race at one mile and one-sixteenth, when she took the lion's share of the purse. Black Memory and Avondale Star, two well-backed bangtails, finished in a dead heat for second money.

Pandomint, overlooked by the punters, came home in front in the first race and returned $20.10, the day's longest straight pay-off. Spanish Ball, one of the outsiders, closed well to take the place position and return his backers $26.70 for a $2 place ticket. Vain Crystal was third.

Battleford, the favorite, won the second gallop at five and one-half furlongs. Cache Creek, also well-backed was second, and Zelpha Lad, was third.

Eddie Neal brought the popular Booter Billy to the wire in front in the third race, with Dodd nosing out Lady Giovando for the place money in a photo finish.

Jockey Alec Haller rode his third winner of the day when he piloted Shining Armor home in front in the final race on the card. Naperton showed a good effort and took the place money, while Plucky Boss was third.

Daily double, Pandomint and Battleford, returned $49.20, while the quinella returned $23.95 in the seventh.

Starting the day dead-locked with Billy Slocum, Jockey Alec Haller pulled away in the race for riding honors by bringing home three winners and a second. Slocum had one winner, a second and a third.

Haller has a total of 88 points to lead the parade, and Billy Slocum is second with 81. Vic Bovine and Johnny Hruschak share third position with 67 points each, and "Jumbo" Kelly is fourth with 57 points.

Willows Rink to Open Its Doors For the Public

THE doors of the Willows Arena will swing open to the anxiously-waiting public tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 when the first session will be held, Manager Barney Olsen announced yesterday. The afternoon skating period will be for two straight hours and the night session will be from 8:15 to 10:15. This will give the skaters four hours to limber up for the first time since the plant closed down for the Summer season. Everything is in readiness for the opening and the management guarantees good, solid ice for the large group of patrons who are expected to head for the rink during the day. Next week there will be skating every day, afternoons and evenings.

Different Clubs Set

Yanks and Cards Changed in Year

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP) — The history books will say the same two teams, New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals, met two years in a row in the world series of 1942 and 1943. But actually the clubs in this year's classic are considerably different from last year's.

Excluding the batteries, the Yanks will have only one infielder and one outfielder from the array that represented New York in 1942, while the Cardinals will use but two infielders and one outfielder.

Consequently any discussion of the comparative merits of the National and American League rivals eventually simmers down to the question of which club has done better at replacing the key men lost to the United States armed services.

In the opinion of this observer the question can only be answered in favor of the Cardinals on the basis of performance during the regular season.

The Redbirds have lost, among others, Pitcher Johnny Beazley, Second Baseman Jimmy Brown and Outfielders Terry Moore and Enos (Country) Slaughter. But they have filled these vacancies so well at times this year's team has appeared better than last year's.

On the other hand the Yankees, rated by past standards, are not a good ball club and there is even some question whether they are the best of a bad lot in the American League right now. There is some sentiment that Washington, since adding Buck Newsom, John Niggeling and Harlond Clift, is a stronger outfit than the Yankees. In any case it is a fact that New York has not yet clinched the pennant, although the end of the season is just a week and a half off.

The Yanks have two qualities that make them formidable in the series—expert pitching and spasmodic power. They have hurlers capable of smothering the opposition and they have hitters like Charley Keller and Nick Etten capable of blowing up a ball game at any point.

Bill McKechnie Signs for Reds

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23 (AP)—William Boyd (Bill) McKechnie signed for his seventh year as manager of Cincinnati's Reds today, becoming the first man in the club's 59-year history to enjoy that long a tenure.

Terms of the one-year paper were not announced, but smiles all around after a brief conference with President Powel Crosley and General Manager Warren C. Giles indicated all was well, despite a report that McKechnie took a slight cut in view of drastically reduced wartime attendance.

As the doughty Scot from Wilkinsburg, Pa., came with the Reds in the Winter of 1937, he was under a two-year contract at $25,000 per, plus a $5,000 bonus if home attendance reached 425,000. It did, as an amazed fandom, accustomed to years of apathetic cellar-dwelling, watched the team jump to fourth place. Next year, 1939, the Rhinelanders copped the National League pennant and in 1940 they won the world championship. McKechnie again collected.

Looking ahead a year hence, Bill will have been a big-time manager 21 years—second only to the 31 years which the late John J. McGraw enjoyed when he stepped down from New York Giants in 1934.

THIRTY SHARES VOTED

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23 (AP)—Assured of fourth place money and with still a chance of finishing third and possibly second, Pittsburgh Pirates today voted thirty full shares in their world series split.

Besides Manager Frankie Frisch and all players who were with the club throughout the season, full shares were voted Trainer Doc Jordgensen, two Forbes field workers, and Club Secretary-Treasurer Sam E. Watters. Eight players, including Maurice Van Robays and Johnny Gee, were voted half shares.

Winnipeg Baseball

WINNIPEG, Sept. 23 (CP)—Orval Minish, a former professional league pitcher with Winnipeg Maroons in the Northern League who hails from Swan River, Man., led Royal Canadian Air Force to the Winnipeg Services Baseball League championship here last night.

Minish struck out seventeen opposing batters and tossed four-hit ball to lead the airmen to a 3-1 victory over H.M.C.S. Chippawa in the fifth game of a best-of-seven series.

The airmen won the first, second and fourth games of the series, 8-3, 6-2 and 4-1, but lost the third contest 12-0. Minish hurled all four R.C.A.F. wins.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Sept. 23 (CP)—Three Pacific Coast Conference schools—the University of Idaho, Washington State College and Oregon State College—jointly reported tonight a decision to withdraw from participation in conference football for 1943.

Withdrawal of these teams sounded the death knell of the Pacific Coast Conference as such. Out of 10 original members, the University of Washington remains alone in the Northern half; California, Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles comprise the Southern loop.

Stanford was the first major coast team to abandon the sport. Montana University and the University of Oregon later withdrew.

Rainiers Drop Game In the Last Frame

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Scoring four runs in the ninth inning, the San Francisco Seals defeated the Seattle Rainiers, 6-5, today to win the opening game of the Coast League's Shaughnessy play-off finals for cash and the President's Cup.

The favored visitors went into the last inning with a 5-2 lead and apparently had the initial contest sewed up when the Seals staged their uprising.

Southpaw Carl Fischer, of Seattle, blew up in the ninth and, with the bases full and one out, was yanked in favor of Syl Johnson, veteran righthander.

Gus Suhr thereupon doubled to score Jimmy Adair and Charley Petersen, and Bruce Ogrodowski singled to left to bring home Henry Steinbacker with the tying run.

The winning tally was scored by Bob Joyce, pitcher, running for Del Young, who had batted for Third Sacker Erwin Paul and been walked purposely. With two out, Pinch-Hitter Logan Hooper grounded into the infield, and Third Baseman Dick Gyselman, of Seattle, muffed the play to permit Joyce to race home.

Tomorrow's pitchers are expected to be Joe Demoran for Seattle and Joyce for San Francisco. Both are right-handers.

Ice Material In Ontario

TORONTO, Sept. 23 (CP).—There'll be no lack of team strength when the Ontario Hockey Association opens its senior and junior series this season.

At a meeting last night, an O.H.A. subcommittee presided over by F. W. (Dinty) Moore, of Port Colborne, announced the association has invited ten junior "A" clubs and nine senior "A" teams to meet with the subcommittee early in October to discuss groupings and schedules.

The meeting of the junior clubs is set for October 2 here. They are Oshawa Generals, Brantford Lions, Hamilton Whizzers, Stratford Kroehlers, Toronto Marlboros, Toronto Young Rangers, St. Michael's College, of Toronto, and three teams which did not enjoy junior "A" rating last year—Port Colborne, St. Catharines and Galt.

The senior clubs, invited to meet the subcommittee here October 3, are Hamilton Majors, St. Catharines Saints, Port Colborne Sailors, Niagara Falls Cataracts, Kingston Army and four Toronto clubs—Navy, R.C.A.F., Research Colonels and Army Daggers. Kingston is the only club not in the league last season.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP).—Aside from gold mines and scattered specialties which enjoyed a belated upswing, leading stocks generally kept to the downward path in today's market.

In the final hour, initial losses running to three or more points were reduced in most cases. Minus marks were well in the majority at the finish.

The good war news apparently was ignored and tax doubts and thoughts of more correction of the recent recovery were retarding factors. Preparations for the big Wall Street bond rally, held on the floor of the Stock Exchange after the close, may have helped divert attention from corporate securities.

The Associated Press sixty-stock average was off .3 of a point at 51, where it had lost a sizable portion of its comeback of the preceding week. Transfers of 667,330 shares compared with 661,060 yesterday.

Victoria Tops British Columbia For Sunshine

Victoria doesn't fare too badly when it comes to the matter of hours of bright sunshine per annum, according to the report on the climate of British Columbia issued by the Department of Agriculture.

In fact, it tops the list in the tables given with a total of 2,199 hours of brilliance every year, while Kamloops comes second highest with a total of 2,141 hours of sunshine. Prince Rupert, dullest of them all, carries on under a meagre 1,080 sunny hours. Vancouver enjoys 1,824 hours.

This city has quite a pleasant mean temperature as well, chalking up a yearly average of 50 degrees, which is the same as Vancouver, and only one degree lower than the highest mean of 51 degrees, which is enjoyed by Duncan, Lillooet and White Rock.

The meanest mean temperatures are to be found in such places as Atlin, with a cilly 32; Glacier, 36; Sinclair Pass, in the Kootenays, 35; and Vanderhoof, 36.

When it comes to extremes of temperature, Victoria is nowhere near the highest high of 111 that was reached at Cumberland in July of last year, nor the lowest low of 34 degrees below that was reached at Fort St. John. Victoria's highest last year was 93 in July, and her lowest was 25 in January.

The truth about rainfall, too, is that the average precipitation in Victoria only amounts to 26.96 inches each year. Compare that with an upcoast place called Swanson Bay, where an average of 190.34 inches of rain drops from the sky every 365 days. At the other extreme is Ashcroft, with a mere 6.90 inches every year.

And those who doubt the climatic advantages of Victoria compared with Vancouver would do well to believe the statistics, which show that the mainland city endures rainfall that totals 58.63 inches annually.

Court of Appeal

The judgment in Rex vs. McLeod and Giudo, convicted last Summer of breaking and entering and sentenced to two and a half years hard labor each, was handed down yesterday morning, the majority of the court reducing the sentence to one year as from that date.

The appeal in Andrew Boldrick, plaintiff-appellant, vs. Richard Anderson, defendant-respondent, occupied the entire day, Henry Castillou, K.C., appearing for the appellant, and D. W. F. McDonald for the respondent.

The action was for damages for alienation of the affections of the plaintiff's wife, and Mr. Justice Smith ordered the case withdrawn from the jury on the ground there was no evidence to warrant same going before the jury.

The appeal was allowed with costs, a new trial with jury ordered and costs of first trial to abide result of second.

Peremptory list: Williamson vs. Slater et al.

Syrup Available for Children Under Two

Parents with babies under two years who require more Karo syrup than that allowed by the regular ration are advised by ration officials that they can exchange one sugar coupon for two preserve coupons, and in this way obtain more syrup.

The exchange can take place only at the local ration office in the Union Building, not in retail stores, it is stated.

All baby fruits in cans, pulped, sliced or in pieces, or with additional food such as rice, are rationed, and come under rationing regulations, including all goods designated as "junior foods."

ORCHESTRAL UNION

Seek Curfew—In a letter received at the City Hall on Thursday, the police commission asked the City Council to pass a curfew by-law to keep juveniles off the streets late at night. Pensioners May Retain Property

A definite denial of the statement that Old Age Pensioners are required to transfer or assign interest in their property to the Old Age Pensions Board before they can receive a pension was made Thursday by Hon. G. S. Pearson, Minister of Labor.

Clarifying the pension situation for those who think that such transfer must be made, Mr. Pearson said: "This is absolutely incorrect."

"No pensioner has ever been required to transfer or assign his property to the Old Age Pensions Board. In fact, the Old Age Pensions Board of British Columbia has no authority to accept such property."

He said that the confusion seems to arise from the fact that the Old Age Pensions Board is expected to recover out of the estate of a deceased pensioner the sum of pension payments made to the pensioner where the estate passes into the hands of persons who have not, during the years recently preceding the decease of the pensioner contributed to the interest of the pensioner in reasonable amounts according to their ability.

The minister said it was true, however, that in a few cases the Old Age Pensions Board has taken action against the executor of an estate where, in the opinion of the O.A.P. Board, the executor was not winding up the estate expeditiously.

Sketches of Men In Action on View At Spencer's Now

Portraits of the rugged men in the navy, air force and army, done with admirable skill by Canada's foremost portrait artist, Grant Macdonald, are being exhibited at Spencer's Art Gallery. Fifty life-like and individual crayon sketches will be on view every day until October 2. They have been exhibited in many cities and received high acclaim.

Mr. Macdonald, who is one of the finest black and white artists of the continent, is well known in London, New York and to countless readers who have seen his sketches of great personalities in many magazines. He spent considerable time doing the present series, and there is a fluid motion, a vitality about them that makes them worth seeing.

"Two Generations of Sailing," showing a keen-eyed old salt and his son, is particularly good; "Single in File, Abreast in Purpose" is a striking study of men in combat. Another splendid sketch shows an engagement at sea; the motion of the rolling ship and heaving waters is excellent.

Hon. Mark Kearley, P.R.S.A., himself an artist of note, whose efforts brought the exhibit to Victoria, says: "If there is sufficient interest shown by visitors to this exhibit, we hope to bring more of the work of contemporary artists to Victoria." The Federation of Canadian Artists has regular showings in nearly every other city in Canada, and he hopes Victoria may have the same benefit throughout the coming Winter.

Exchequer Court Completes Cases

In an Exchequer Court judgment handed down on Thursday afternoon by Mr. Justice J. T. Thorson, an award of $5,250 and interest at 5 per cent from June 27, 1942, to May 15, 1943, was made to W. Bamford for property at Patricia Bay. No costs were allowed. Mr. Bamford petitioned the court for payment of $9,000 by the Department of National Defence for his land.

L. W. E. Evans was allowed $10,000 and 5 per cent interest from June 27, 1942, to May 15, 1943, also for property at Patricia Bay. No costs were granted. Mr. Evans sought $14,000 for his land.

M. Brethour was granted $2,000 and interest at 5 per cent from June 27, 1942, to date for property at Sidney. Costs were allowed. The Department of National Defence offered $1,500, and Mr. Brethour held out for $5,000.

E. I. Jones was allowed $23,500 net for Patricia Bay property. Costs and interest were granted.

An offer of $7,800 for the McLean property at Patricia Bay was accepted by owners. No costs were allowed, but interest from June 27, 1942, to date was granted.

Herbert W. Davey appeared for the five property owners, and H. A. Beckwith represented the Crown during the Exchequer Court session at the Courthouse.

Worker Beaten and Robbed by Seaman

Selling his Victory Bonds, from the proceeds of which he intended buying a fishing boat, Robert J. Martin, a shipbuilder, 314 Simcoe Street, was robbed Wednesday of between $600 and $700 by a sailor with whom he had spent the afternoon and evening, according to reports to the Oak Bay and city police.

After selling his bonds, Martin declared, he went to a club. There he met a sailor with whom he went in a taxicab to the Uplands. Then, as related by the woman taxicab driver, Martin and the seaman quarreled. Both men, she said, left the cab. Soon after the sailor got into the cab and ordered her to back up. She did, but thinking she had struck the civilian, she drove forward again.

Threatened by the sailor, the woman said, she drove on. At Cadboro Bay and Lansdowne Roads the sailor left the cab. Coming into town alone, the driver notified city police. Martin, meantime, reported to Oak Bay police, by whom he was taken home.

Supporting the taxi driver's testimony, Martin said that the cab had, in fact, backed over him, but that the wheels had not touched his body. He had numerous cuts and bruises about the face, according to Oak Bay police, who took Martin to his home.

Four Appeals Dealt With by Zoning Board

Application of the Royal Trust Company for permission to construct a driveway at 3092 Rockland Avenue was granted by the zoning board of appeal during a meeting in the City Hall, Thursday afternoon.

Plans and specifications of W. G. Sinclair to convert 137 Government Street into a two-family dwelling were conditionally approved. An appeal of P. F. Edwards to alter and repair a house at 1531 Hillside Avenue was disallowed. Permission was refused Mrs. C. J. Knott to convert a small building at the northwest corner of Yates and Harrison Streets into a dwelling.

Production of Coal Increased in August

A slight increase in the output of coal from the collieries of British Columbia during the month of August was reported Thursday by the Chief Inspector of Mines.

Total for the province was 151,804 long tons, as compared with 148,131 long tons for the same month last year.

Vancouver Island district, with a total of 63,519 tons was the most productive, followed by East Kootenay with 74,333, Nicola-Princeton with 12,779, and Northern district with 1,178.

An Arab was being taken in a car across a very bumpy section of the desert. So bad was the going that at last the car overturned and the Arab was thrown out. Instead of turning in wrath on his driver, he picked himself up and apologized profusely: "I've not learned to ride one of these things yet."

2 DEATHS

BOND—At the family residence, 522 Rupert Street, on September 21, there passed away Mrs. Annie Bond, in her seventy-eighth year; she was born in Sydney, Australia, and had been a resident of Victoria for twenty-nine years. She is survived by her husband at home, and one son, Victor J. Bond, of Port Alberni.

Besides her husband, she leaves two children, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Smith, in Victoria; two brothers, Fred George Smith, overseas, and Frank Smith, R.C.N., Victoria; two sisters, Miss Mabel Smith, in Vancouver, and Mrs. M. Boulin, in Victoria.

3 IN MEMORIAM

FORSYTH — In loving memory of Elizabeth Forsyth, who passed away September 24, 1941.
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we will meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
Always remembered by her loving husband and family.

"I used to be a farmer once," confided the patient.
"Is that so?"
"Yep. I've done a lot of farming—but say—did U ever try being clever?"
Startled, the farmer said he hadn't.
"Well," said the patient, "if you ever do, U otter try it. It beats farming all holler."
(From Short Furrows) in Sat. Eve. Post.

LOTTA PEOPLE think us crazy for not taking this big stock of new furniture in—now and selling it out for all to see, but where we stored it that we did it—we couldn't tell all. WAREHOUSE PRICES . . . that don't think we sure try it."

Russo Allows Two Hits to the Tigers

Blanks Detroit and Yanks Move Closer to American League Flag

By The Associated Press

Marius Russo, the sore-armed southpaw, put himself in line for a world series assignment by pitching two-hit ball as New York Yankees downed Detroit Tigers, 1-0. He fanned seven and walked four while handcuffing all the Tigers except Rookie Jimmy Outlaw and Joe Wood, who collected singles.

By winning the Yanks eliminated Cleveland Indians from the pennant race and moved closer to the inevitable clinching of their fourteenth American League championship.

Pending a night game at Washington the Yankees need two more triumphs to dispose of the stubborn Senators.

Boston and Cleveland divided an American League double-header before a slim crowd with the Red Sox punching out a 13-7 victory in the first game and the Indians hammering out a fifteen-hit 6-4 decision in the second game.

Chicago White Sox gained undisputed possession of fourth place in the American League as Orval Grove hurled a 5-2 victory over Philadelphia Athletics for his twelfth mound triumph of the season.

St. Louis Browns blasted out sixteen blows to trounce the second-place Washington Senators, 12 to 3, behind Southpaw Al Milnar's effective hurling.

Milnar scattered Washington's [illegible] hits, allowing no more than two in any inning. The Browns clubbed Buck Newsom for nine safeties and added seven more off Alex Carrasquel, who went to the mount in the sixth. It was Newsom's loss.

Martin Christman led the St. Louis attack with four hits.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia Phils blew a five-run lead when Chicago Cubs staged a six-run sixth-inning to blast Schoolboy Rowe off the mound and win, 8-7.

Bill Nicholson paced the Chicago attack with his twenty-fifth and homers of the National League season to bring his runs-batted-in total to 116.

Alpha Brazle, a rookie left-hander who is expected to start one of the world series games, failed to subdue Brooklyn Dodgers as Whitlow Wyatt beat St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, for his tenth consecutive triumph.

The Dodgers, using a line-up liberally sprinkled with freshmen, made nine hits and led from the third inning on.

The victory assured the Dodgers of second place in the National League for at least another day.

Big Jim Tobin continued his season-long jinx over his erstwhile mates, the Pirates, as the Braves defeated Pittsburgh, 2-1, for the second straight day. Tobin's "flutter" ball worked beautifully. He didn't allow a hit until the fifth.

The smallest crowd in the history of night baseball in Cincinnati, 2,088 fans, saw Pinch-Hitter Chuck Aleno single Lonnie Frey home with one out in the ninth to give the Cincinnati Reds a 3-2 victory over New York Giants.

TORONTO, Sept. 23 (CP) —Behind five-hit pitching by Nick Strincevich, Toronto Maple Leafs tonight defeated Syracuse Chiefs, 6-0, to level their best-of-seven series for the Governor's Cup at one victory apiece.

Tight pitching again settled the issue, just as it did in Syracuse's 5-3 victory last night in the first game of the series. Strincevich was in full charge throughout, while his mates cuffed Tom Delacruz for nine hits, good for three-run rallies in the third and fifth inning.

The third game of the series which determines the International League's representative in the Little World Series will be played in Syracuse on Saturday. Fourth game will be played in Syracuse Sunday and a fifth, if necessary, there Monday. If further games are necessary they will be played in Toronto on dates to be set later.

Note Circulation Off

LONDON, Sept. 23 (CP) — The weekly condition statement of the Bank of England for the week ended September 22 disclosed a decrease of £389,000 in note circulation.

Decreases of £1,818,000 in public deposits and £2,160,000 in other securities were offset by increases of £8,286,000 in private deposits and £8,231,000 in Government securities.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liabilities this week was 9.4 per cent compared with 25.6 per cent the same week a year ago.

CARLOADINGS GAIN

OTTAWA, Sept. 23 (CP) — The Dominion Bureau of Statistics said today that revenue freight loaded at railway stations in Canada and received from foreign connections during June amounted to 13,101,589 tons, compared with 11,652,200 tons in June last year. Loadings increased by 562,021 tons, or 7.1 per cent. Imports by 303,591 tons, or [illegible] per cent. Exports to foreign connections destined to foreign ports by 583,768 tons, or 28.4 per cent.

CRANBROOK, B.C., Sept. 23 (CP) —Collection of eggs from Fish Lake this season numbered 1,600,000 cutthroat trout. An additional 115,000 Kamloops trout eggs were shipped in from Gerard Lake, 200,000 from Lloyds Creek and 400,000 from Pennask Lake. A feeder programme for toughening fingerlings before planting showed great success in this, its fourth, year. Under the programme the fish are made vitamin conscious early and after forty days of special feeding hesch the two-inch size they would normally reach in a year in their native waters.

At the Theatres

Stirring Picture 'This Land Is Mine' Now at Dominion

A romance unrevealed until the man in the case is on trial for his life forms a dramatic phase of "This Land Is Mine," RKO Radio's stirring picture of Nazi occupation in a quiet European village, which starts today at the Dominion Theatre.

Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara are starred in the film as a pair of school teachers who find themselves caught in the riptide of the surging conflict between the villagers and the German troops. Not until Laughton finds himself accused of murder and is beginning to realize the meaning of freedom does he confess his love for Miss O'Hara, and make that confession a part of his defence in which he seeks to unite the inhabitants in resisting the invaders.

CAPITOL THEATRE At long last, Hollywood is giving us a real minstrel show! And, from everything heard about it, it's been well worth waiting for. Thanks to Paramount, the jitterbug generation is going to have a chance to see—and hear—what young America was dancing to and singing a hundred years ago. Bing Crosby's great new musical, "Dixie," is now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

RIO THEATRE Three out of the original six Dead End Kids, who appeared together in the stage play and the picture which followed it, come to the Rio Theatre in the rollicking Monogram comedy-drama in the East Side Kids series, "Clancy Street Boys," the youngsters who are starred in the new film are Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall and Bobby Jordan, heading a gang which also includes Bennie Bartlett, Sammy Morrison, Dick Chandlee and Eddie Mills.

OAK BAY AND PLAZA THEATRES Robert Donat is co-starred with Madeleine Carroll in "The 39 Steps," the Gaumont production adapted from John Buchaff's novel and directed by Alfred Hitchcock which is now showing at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres. Also features are Lucie Mannheim, Godfrey Tearle and Peggy Ashcroft.

Amusements

On the Screen

Atlas—"Presenting Lily Mars," starring Judy Garland and Van Heflin.

Cadet—"In Which We Serve," starring Noel Coward.

Capitol—"Dixie," starring Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour.

Dominion—Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara in "This Land Is Mine."

Oak Bay and Plaza—"The 39 Steps," with Robert Donat and Madeleine Carroll.

Rio—"Clancy Street Boys," with the East Side Kids.

York — Gene Tierney and Preston Foster in "Thunder Birds."

YORK THEATRE A strong cast is seen in 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor "Thunder Birds," soldiers of the air, which is showing at the York Theatre. Gene Tierney is starred, while Preston Foster and John Sutton head a featured list that includes Jack Holt, Dame May Whitty, George Barbier, Richard Haydn and Reginald Denny. John Gunther delivers a spectacular pro- and epilogue to the film.

CADET THEATRE "In Which We Serve," the biography of a ship authored, directed and produced by Noel Coward—who is also its leading player—moved into the Cadet Theatre last night with all the fanfare fitting this great film. A war picture made on the other side of the Atlantic, it combines the actuality of an exciting newsreel with the humanity of a great story.

ATLAS THEATRE Spring Byington plays Judy Garland's understanding mother in M-G-M's "Presenting Lily Mars," now playing at the Atlas Theatre. Co-starring Judy Garland and Van Heflin, the film depicts the struggles of a young amateur actress to reach stardom on the stage. Featured in the cast are Richard Carlson and Fay Bainter.

Radio Stars Will Appear at Shrine Hall Tonight

Once again at the stroke of nine, Ray Norris and his five union men will let down their hair with all the musical phrases that ingenuity can muster to another enthusiastic crowd of Victoria admirers. As well as play a full programme of dance music, this talented aggregation will entertain with novelty songs and unique musical arrangements—arrangements such as those that are heard every Monday night at 9:45 p.m. on "Serenade in Swing" over CBR.

Appearing with Ray Norris and [illegible] derson, pianist, heard regularly over CKWX; Drummer Louie Nelson, "Scat Singer," Canada's "Benny Goodman," Phil Nimmons, plus Victoria's own "Chet" Cotter, Saxophonist and Vancouver's noted trumpeter, Bud Hamer. Ray Norris' "Dixielanders" will be at the Shrine Auditorium tonight to play a full and colorful dance programme.

Provincial Boxla Dates Announced By Doug Fletcher

It will be a two-out-of-three-game series and the survivors will clash with the Eastern titleholders for the Mann Cup on the Coast. On October 2 Victoria and Vancouver midgets will meet in a sudden-death game for the provincial honors, and October 4 Douglas Tire will take on Vancouver in the juvenile "B" final in the opener to the feature game. Owl Drug will play the preliminary to the first of the Mann Cup series on October 9.

RACE TRAINERS SUSPENDED

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23 (AP). — Trainers W. Graves Sparks and Bruce R. McIntire were barred today from racing their stables at Thistle Down Track as a result of an indefinite suspension ordered by the Michigan Racing Commission.

Commissioner William J. Dowling of Michigan said saliva tests indicated Sun Rick, trained by Sparks, and Good Play, trained by McIntire, had been stimulated by narcotics September 10 when they won the first and second races, respectively, to pay $147.40 in the daily double at the Detroit fairgrounds track. Sparks is the handler for the Brown Hotel Stable.

The Ohio Racing Commission recognizes rulings of the Michigan commission.
